Journal of the modification of the modification of the modification of the modification of the modification. this moneth, the children of Ifrael were assembled with fasting, and with fackclothes, and earth upon them.

And the feed of Ifrael feparated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their fins, and the iniquities of their fathers. 3 And they flood up in their places and read in $ book of $ law of $ LORD their Godsone fourth part of the daysand another fourth part they confessed, and worthipped the L O R D their God.

4 Then flood up upon the ftairs of the Levires, Jefhua, and Banis Kadmicle Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherabiah, Bani, and Chenanisand cried with a loud voice unto the L o R D their God.

5 Then the Levites, lefhua, and Kadmi-le, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, faid, Stand up. and bleffe the LORD your God for ever and ever, and bleffed be thy glorious Name, which is exalted above all bleffing and praise.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didft chuse Abram and broughted bim forth out of Ur of the Caldees, and ga-vest him the name of Abraham : 8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, & madeft a covenant with hims to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites & Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebulites, and the Girgalites, to give it. I fay, to his feed, and haft performed thy words a for thou art rightcous : fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red-lea:

10 And thewedft fignes and wonders upon Pharaohand on all his fervants and on all the people of his land: for thou kneweft that they dealt proudly against them: so didst thou get thee a Name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didft divide the fea before them, fo that they went thorow the midft of the fea on the dry land and their perfections thou threwest into the deeps as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they thould go.

13 Thou camelt down also upon monnt

Sinai. & fpakeft with them from heaven, and gaveft them right judgements, Strue laws, good flaures and commandments a 14 And madest known unto them thine holy fabbath, and commandeds them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant :

15 And gaveft them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirft, and promifedft them that they should go in to possess the land, which thou had sworn to give them.

carkened not to thy commandments : 27 40

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindefull of the wonders that thou didft among them : but hardened their necks and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage : but thou art a God ready to parden, gracious and ercifully flow to anger, and of great kindnesse, and forsookest them not.

18 Yez, when they had made them a that brought thee up out of Egypts and had wrought great provocatio

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forfookeft them not in the wilderneffe : the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way, neither the pillar of fire by night-to thew them light, and the way wherein they

20 Thou gavelt alfo thy good fpirit, to infinite them, and withhelden not thy rranna from their mouth and gavelt them water for their thirft.

21 Yea, fourty yeers didft thou fustain them in the wildernesse, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them king-doms, and nations, and didst divide them into corners: fo they pofferfed the land of Sibon, and the land of the king of Heft-bon, and the land of Og king of Baftan. 23. Their children alfo multipliedft thou as the ftars of heaven and broughteft them into the land-concerning which abou hadfl promifed to their fathers that they should go in to possesse it.

24 So the children went it, and poffeffed the land, and thou fubdued& before them the inhabitants of the land, the Camanites, and gaven them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took ftrong cities and a fat land & possessed houses tall of all goods, wells digged-vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance : fo they did ratiand were filled & became fat and delighted themselves in thy great goodnes.

26 Nevertheleffe, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cash thy law behinde their backs, and flew thy prophets, which tellified against them, to turn them to thee, and they wrought great prevecations

Therefore thou deliveredft them Into the hand of their enemics , wexed them , and in the time of their grouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven : and according to thy manifold mercies thou gaveft them faviours, who faved them out of the hand of their enemies

26 But after they had reft, they did evil again before thee : therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, fo that they had the dominion over them : yet when they returned, and cried that thee, thou heardest them from heaven, and many times didn thou deliver them, according to thy mercies: 29 And required againg them, that

ou mightest bring them again onto the priver they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but finned against thy judgements, (which if a man do, he shall live in them) and withdrew the houlders and hardened their necks and would not hear.

30 Yer many yeers didft thou forbear them, and teftifiedft against them by thy fpirit in thy prophets : yet would they not give ear:therefore gaveft thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheleffe, for thy great mercies fake thou didit not utterly confume

them, nor forfake them ; for thou art a gracious and mercifull God

32 Now therefore our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy ; let not all the trouble feem little before thee, that hath come upon us on our kings on our princes, and on our priefts, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, fince the time of the kings of Affyria, unto this day.

33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us : for thou hast dene right, but we have done wickedly :

34 Neither have our kings our princess our priests, nor our fathers kept thy laws nor hearkened unto thy commandments, and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didft reftiffe againft them.

35 For they have not ferved thec in their kingdom, and in thy great goodneffe that thou gaveft them, and in the large and fat land which thou gaveft before them , neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are fervants this day : and for the land that thou gaveft unte our fathers, to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are fervants in it 37 And it yeeldeth much increase unto the kings, whom thou haft fet over us, because of our fins : also they have deminion over our bodies, and over out cattell at their pleafure, and we are in great diftreffe.

38 And because of all this we make a fure covenant, and write it, and our princes, Levites, and priefts feal unto it. HAP. X.

30 And the priefts, and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the peo-ple, and the gates, and the wall.

3r Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung-gate :

32 And after them went Hoftaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra and Mefhullam,

Judah and Benjamin and Shemaiah 34 Judah:and 35 And certain of the priests sons with trumpers: namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan the son of Shemaiah the son of Martanish, the fon of Michaiah, the fon of Zaccur, the fon of Afaph :

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanichand Judah , Hanani, with the musi call infruments of David the man of God', and Ezra the feribe before them.

37 And at the fountain gate, which was over aginft them, they went up by the fairs of the city of David, at the going ap of the wall above the house of David, even to the water-gate,eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks, went over against them, and I after them & the half of the people upon the walls from beyond the tower of the furnaces, even unto the broad wall.

39 And from above the gate of Ephraimand above the old gate, and above the file-gate-and the tower of Hanancels and the tower of Mesh, even unto the facep gate, and they flood fill in the prifongare.

40 So flood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God and I and the half of the rulers with me :

41 And the priefle: Eliakim, Masschah, Minjamin, Michaiab, Elioenai, Zachariah, and Hananiah with trumpers :

42 And Maafeiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah and Elam and Ezer. And the fingers fang loud with Jezrahiah their overfeer.

43' Alfo that day they offered great facrifices, and rejoyced; for God had madethem rejoyce with great joy : the wives alfo and the children rejoyced : fo that the joy of Jejufalem was heard even star off.

44 ¶ And at that time were fome appointed over the chambers, for the treares for the offerings for the first fruits and for the tithes , to gather into them out of the fields of the cities, the portions of the law for the priests and Levites : for Judah rejoyced for the priefts, and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the fingers and the porlen kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification-according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his fon.

46 For in the dayes of David and Afish of old, there were chief of the fingemand fongs of praise and thanksgiving

47 And all Ifrael in the days of Zerubbel; and in the dayes of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the fingers, and the porters every day his portion, and they fan-Rified holy things unto the Levites, and the Levites fandified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAP.

I Upon the reading of the law . Separation is made from the mixed multisude.

N that day they read in the book of Mofes in the audience of the people,and therein was found written, that the Ammonite, and the Mosbite hould nor come into the congregation of God for ever-

Because they met not the children of Ifrael with bread, and with water, but hired Balaam against them that he should curfe them : howbeit our God turned the curfe into a bleffing.

3 Now it came to paffe when they had heard the law, that they separated from Ifrael all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliafhib the prieft. having the over-fight of the chamber of the house of our God , was allied unto Tobiah :

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the veffels, and the tithes of the corn-the new wine and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the fingers, and the porters, and the offerings of the pricits.

But in all this fime was not I at lerufalem : for in the two and thirtieth yeer of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, came I unto the king, and after certain dayes obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalemand underflood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiath in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me fore, therefore E caft forth all the houshold-stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber :

Then I commanded and they cleanfed the chambers , and thither brought I again the veffels of the house of Gods with the meat-offering, and the frankin-

10 ¶ And I perceived that the port?. ons of the Levites had not been given them : for the Levices, and the fingers that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then contended I with the rulers and faid, Why is the house of God forfaken ! and I gathered them together, and fet them in their place.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine, and the oils unto the treasuries.

13'And I made treasurers over the treafuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedajah : and next to them was Hanan the fon of Zaccur, the fon of Mattaniah : for they were counted faithfull, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren, 14 Remember me,O my Godsconcerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds, that I have done for the house of my Godjand for the offices thereof.

24 159 19 breading wine-preffes on the fabbath, and bringing in fheaves, and lading affes, as alfo wine grapes and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into lerefalem on the fabbath-day : and I teftiwhey fold viauals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre alfo therein, which brought fifth and all manner of ware, and fold on the fabbath unto the shildren of Judah, and in Jerufalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and faid unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the Sabbath-day !

18 Did not your fathers thus & did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and sepon this city ' yet ye bring more wrath apon Ifrael, by profaning the fabbath.

19 And it came to passe, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the fabbath. I commanded that the mould not be opened till after the fabbath : and fome of my fervants fet I at the gates, that there should no burden be 20 So the merchants and fellers of all hinde of ware lodged without Jerufalem

once or twice,

21 Tren I teflifed againft them, and faid unto them. Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the fabbath

22 And I commanded the Levites that they mould cleanfe themfelves, and that they fould come and keep the gates, to fanttiffe & fabbath-day. Remember me. O

Is In those dayes faw I In Judah fome my God concerning this also & spare me, occording to the greatnesse of thy mercy. 23 In those dayes also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdods of Ammon, and of Moab :

24 And their children fpake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not fpeak in the Jews language-but according to the language of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and curfed them, and fraore certain of them, and pluckt off their hair, and made them fwear by God, faying, Ye hall not give your daughters unto their fons, nor take their daughters umo your fons, or for your felves.

19 Thy way is in the fear and thy path in the great waters : and thy foothers are not known.

20 Thou leddeft thy people like a flock by the hand of Mofes and Aaron.

PSAL LXXVIII.

An exhortation to learn Gods law, 9 Gods wrath against the disobedient. 97 The Ifraelites rejetted

Mafchil of Afaph. Ive car, O my people, to my law : I encline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable : I will utter dark fayings of old :

Which we have heard and known :

and our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children: flewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD: and his frength, and his wonderfull works that he hath done.

5 For he established a restimony in Ja-cob & appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers: that they should make them known to their children.

6 That the generation to come might now them, even the children which fould be born : mbo fould arife and declare them to their children :

7 That they might fet their hope in God; and not forget the works of God; but keep his commandments,

8 And might not be as their fathers, a flubbern and rebellieus generation, generation that fet not their heart arights and whose spirit was nor ftedfaft with God.

The children of Ephraim being armed, and carrying bowes, turned back in the day of battell.

To They kept not the covenant of God; and refused to walk in his law:

11 And forgat his works : and his wonders that he had shewed them

12 Marvellous things did he in the fight of their fathers : Egypt, in the field of Zoan

13 He divided the fea and caufed them to paffe thorow : and he made the waters to fland as an heap. 14 In the day time also he led them with a cloud : and all the night with a light of fire. 15 He clave the rocks in the wildermeffe : and gave them drinks as out of the great depths. 16 He brought ftreams alfo out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. 17 And they finned yet more against him: by provoking the most High in the wilderneffe. 18 And they tempted God in their by asking meat for their lust

19 Yea, they fpake againft God: they faid. Can God furnift a table in the wilderneffe !

20 Behold, he fmore the rock, that the waters guiled out, and the ftreams over flowed : can be give bread alfo ! can be provide fleft for his people?

21 Therefore & LORD heard this and ras wroth : fo a fire was kindled againft Jacob & anger alfo came up againft Ifrael. 22 Becaufe they beleeved not in God :

and trufted not in his falvation : 23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above and opened the doors of heaven:

24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat : and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat angels food : he fent them meat to the full

26 He caufed an eaft-winde to blow in the heaven : and by his power he brought in the fouth-winde.

27 He rained fieth also upon them as duft : and feathered fowls like as the fand of the fea.

28 And he let it fall in the midft of their camp-round about their habitations, 29 So they did cat, and were well fil-led: for he gave them their own defire.

30 They were not estranged from their luft : but while their meat mas yet in their mouthess 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and flew the fatteft of them: and fmore down the chosen men of Ifrael. 32 For all this they finned ftill: and beleeved not for his wondrous works.

Therefore their dayes did he confume in vanity and their yeers in trouble

34 When he flew them, then they fought him: and they returned, and enquired carly after God.

35 And they remembered that God mas their rock ; and the high God, their sedeemer.

36 Nevertheleffesthey did flatter him with their mouth : and they hied unto him with their tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with him : neither were they ftedfaft in his covenant.

Pfalms,

38 But hesbeing full of compassions forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea-many a time turned he his anger away and did not fiir up all his wrath.

39 For he remembered that they were but fleth, a winde that paffeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they provoke him in the wildernesse, and grieve them in & defert ? 41 Yea, they turned back, and rempted

God, and limited the holy One of Ifrael. They remembered not his hand: nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy :

43 How he had wrought his fignes in Egypti& his wonders in the field of Zoan: And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 He fent divers forts of flies among n, which devoured them : and frogs which deftroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar : and their labour unto the locust

47 He dearoyed their vines with hail: and their fycamore-trees with froft.

38 He gave up their cattel alfo to the hail: and their flocks to hot thunder-bolts,

49 He cast upon them the fiercenesse of his anger-wrath and indignation & trouble : by fending evil angels among them. 50 He made a way to his anger, he pared not their foul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence

51 And fmote all the firft-born in Egypt : the chief of their ftrength in the tabernacles of Ham;

52 But made his own people to ge forth like fheep; and guided them in the wilderneste like a flock. 53 And he led them on fafely, fo that they feared not : but the fea overwhelmed their enemies. 54 And he brought them to the border his fanduary; even to this mountain which his right hand had purchased. 55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritasce by line : and made the tribes of Ifrael to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God: and kept not his tellmonies :

57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully, like their fathers : they were turned afide like a deceitfull bowe.

58 For they provoked him to anget with their high places : and moved him to sealousie with their graven images.

59 When God heard this he was wroth and greatly abhorred Ifrael: 60 So that he forfook the tabernacle of Shiloh: Frent which he placed among ment 61 And delivered his ft sength into caprivity:& his glory into fenemies hand. 62 He gave his people over also unto the fword : and was wroth with his in-

TECCLESIASTES, OF, THE PREACHER.

CHAP,

Jes are vain. 4 because the creatures are refliefe. 9 They bring forth nothing new, and old things are forgotten: 12 and because he hath found it so in wifdoms Rudies.

He words of the preacher, the fon of David, king in feru-falem.
2 Vanity of vanities faith the preacher, vanity of va-nuies, all is vanity.

What profit hath a man of all his Isbour, which he taketh under the fun ?

One generation paffeth away, and mether generation comech, but the earth

5 The fun alfo arifeth, and the fun goeth down, and hafteth to the place where he arofe.

The winde goeth toward the fouth, and turnerh about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the winde returnerh again according to his circuits.

All the rivers run into the feat yet the fea is not full : unto the place from whence the rivers comes thither they re-

8 All things are full of labour, man cannot utter it: the eye is not fatif-fied with feeings nor the ear filled with bearing.

9 The thing that both been, it is that which shall be and that which is done is no that which hall be done; and there is no new thing under the fun.

to Is there any thing whereof it may be faid, See, this is new ! it bath been already of old time, which was be-

It There is no rememberance of former things; neither shall there be any rememberance of things that are to come, with those that shall come ster.

12 I the preacher was king over Ifræl in Jerufalem.

13 And I gave my heart to feek and fearch out by wildom, concerning all things that are done under heaven; this fore travell hath God given to the fons of man, to be exercised therewith.

14 I have feen all the works that are one under the fun, and behold, all is vanity and vexarion of spirit.

15 That which is crooked, cannot be made Graight, and that which is want-ig cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own hearts hying Lost airi come to great effate and have gotten more wisdom then all they that have been before me in Jerusalem : year my heart had great experience of wiflom and knowledge.

17 And I gave my heart to know wif-domand to know madneffe and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of 18 For in much wifdom is much grief : and he that increaseth knowledge, increateth forrow,

The preacher Sheweth all humans cour- 1 The vanitie of humane courses in the works of pleasure, 18 and of labour. 24 Nothing better then joy in our labours : but that is Gods gift.

Said in my heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleafure : and behold, this also is vanity

2 I faid of laughter, It is mad : and of mirth, What doth it !

I fought in mine heart to give my felf unto wine, (yet acquainting mine keart with wifdom) and to lay hold on folly , till I might fee what mes that good for the fons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the dayes of their life.

I made me great works, I builded me houses, I planted me vineyards.

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kinds

6 I made me pools of water-to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees.

7 I got me fervants and management had fervants born in my houfe : alfo I had great possessions of great and small had great possessions were in Jerusalem before me.

8 I gathered me alfo filver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings, and of the provinces: I gat me men-singers and women-fingers, and the delights of the fons of men as mulicall infruments and that of all forts.

9 So I was greet, and increased more then all that were before me in Jeru-falem: also my wisdom remained with to And whatfoever mine eyes defired, I kept not from them : I withheld not mine heart from any loy: for my heart rejoyced in all my labours; and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do : and beholds all was vanity, and vexation of spirits and there was no profit under the fun.

12 ¶ And I turned my felf to behold wildom and madnefferand folly for what can the man do that cometh after the king ! even that which hath been already

13 Then I faw that wifdom excelleth folly, as far as light excellerh darknesse. 14 The wife mans eyes are in ble houds but the fool walketh in darkneffe , and I

my felf perceived also that one event

15 Then faid I in my heart As it hap-peneth to the fools fo it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wife ? then I faid in my heart, That this also is 16 For there is no rememberance of the wife more then of the fool for ever ; feeing that which now go in the dayes to come shall be forgotten; and how dieth the wife man ? as the fool.

17 There-

17 Therefore I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the fun is grievous unto me : for all is vanity, and vexation of fpirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which T had raken under the fun : because hould leave it unto the man that fhall be after me,

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wife man or a fool ' yet that he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have flewed my felf wife under the fun. This is alfo wanitu

20 Therefore I went about to cause my eart to despair of all the labour which I Book under the fun.

21 For there is a man whose labour it in wifdom, and in knowledge, and in equitie : yet to a man that hath not laboured therein, hall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil

22 For what hath man of all his labours and of the vexation of his heart wherein he hath laboured under the fun ?

23 For all his dayes are forrows, and his travel grief; yea-his heart taketh not reft in the night. This is also vanity. 24 There is nothing better for a then that he fould ear and drink, and that he should make his foul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that towas from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat ? or who elfe can haften hereunto more then I ? 26 For God giveth to a man that is good in his fight, wisdom, and know-ledge, and joy: but to the finner he giweth travell, to gather, and to heap up that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

By the necessary change of times vamity is added to humane travel, 11There is an excellencie in Gods works. O every thing there is a feafon, and a time to every purpole under the heaven. 2 A time to be born and a time to die:

a time to plant, and a time to plack up that which is planted.

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal:

time to break down, and a time to build up

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

5 A time to caft away flones, and a time to gather Rones together : a time to embrace, and a time to sefrain from embracing.

6 A time to get and a time to lofe : a time to keep, and a time to caft away.

7 A time to rent, and a time to few : a gime to keep filence, and a time to fpeak. 8 - A time to love, and a time to hate : a sime of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth !

10 I have feen the travell which God hath given to the fons of men, to be exercifed in it their heart, fo that no man can finde out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoyce, and to do good in his life.

13 And alfo that every man hould ear and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour : it is the gift of God.

14 I know that what foever God derby it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it-nor any thing taken from it : and God doth it , that men hould fear before

15. That which hath been, is now : and that which is to be hath already been and God requireth that which is pak.

16 9 And morcover I faw under the fun the place of judgement, that wickedneffe was there : and the place of rightsoufneffe, that iniquity masthere.

17 I faid in mine heart-God hall judge the righteous, and the wicked : for there is a time there for every purpole, and for every work.

18 I faid in mine heart concerning the effare of the fons of men-that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themfelves are beafis. 19 For that which befalleth the fons of men befalleth beafts, even one thing befalleth them : as the one dieth, fo dieth the other : year they have all one breath fo that a man hath no preeminence a-

20 All go into one place, all are of the

duft, and all turn to duft again. 21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beat that goeth downward to the earth

Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, then that a man flould rejoyce in his own works : for that is his portion : for who shall bring him to fee what faall be after him ?

C H. A P. IIII. pression. 4 by envier 5 by idlenesse. 7 w covetous fuesse. 9 by sol tarinesse.

CO I returned, and confidered all the Soppreffions that are done under the fun, and behold the tears of fuch as were oppressed, and they hal no comforter: and on the fide of their oppressours these mas power, but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, more then the living which are yet alive.

Yearbetter is be then both they which hath not yet been, who hath not feen the evil work that is done under the fun.

Wildom excels Arenoths 6 Alfo their love, and their harred. and their envie is now perched; neither have they any more a portion for ever in suleth over another to his own hurt. 10 And fo I faw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holys and they were forgotten in the cityswhere they had to done : this is alfo vanity. 11 Because sentence against an evil

work is not executed speedily : therefore the heart of the fons of men is fully fet

12 But it shall not be well with the wicked neither shall he prolong his dayes which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth, that there be just men unto shom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked: again, there be wicked men to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous : I faid, that this also is vanity.

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man bath no better thing under the funthen to entiand to drink and to be merry: for that hall abide with him of his la-bour, the dayes of his life which God given him under the fun.

16 9 When I applied my beart to know wildom, and to fee the bufineffe that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth feep with his eyes.)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot finde out the work that is done under the fun : because though a man labour to feek it out, yea further, ough a wife man think to know if, yet till he not be able to finde is.

1 Like things bappen to good and bad. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this II Gods providence over all.

13 Wisdom is better then frength.
For all this I considered in mine heart, even to declare all this, that the righteons, and the wife, and their works, are in the hand of God : no man oweth either love or hatred by all that u before them. 2 All things come alike to all : there is one event to the rightcous, and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean ; to him that facrificeth, and to him that facrificeth not : as is the goods fo is the finner, and he that fwear-eth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the fun, that there is one event unto all : yessaifo the heart of the fons of men is full of evil; and madsofe is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 Torto him that is joyned to all the living, there is hope: for a living dog is better then a dead lion.

For the living know that they shall die but the dead know not any things neither beverhey any more a reward, for the memory of them is fornotten, ...

any thing that is done under the fun To thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart a for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be alwayes white, and let thy head lack no o intment.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovelt all the dayes of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the fun, all the dayes of thy vanity a for that is the portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the fun.

10 Whatfoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might : for there is no work-nor device-nor knowledge-nor wifdom in the grave whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, and faw under the fun, that the race is not to the fwift, nor the battel to the firong-neither yet bread to the wife, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of fkill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For man also knoweth not his time. as the fifes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the fnare; fo are the fons of men fnared in an evil times when it falleth faddenly upon them.
13 This wildom have I feen also pnder the fun and it formed great unto me :

14 There was a little city, and few men within it: and there came a great king against it, and befreged it, and built great bulwarks againft it :

15 Now there was found in it a poor wife man, and he by his wifdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that fame poor man.

16 Then faid I. Wifdom is betrer then ftreagth: nevertheleffes the poor mans wifdom is defpifed, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wife men are heard in quiet, more then the cry of him that fuleth among fools.

18 Wifdem is better then weapons of war : but one finner destroyeth much good.

CHAP. X. 1 Observations of wisdom and folly. 16 Of riot. 18 slothfulnesse, 19 and money. 20 Mens thoughts of kings ought to be reverend.

Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking favour : fo doth a little folly, him that is

Hear, O heavens , and give ear.O earth ; for the LORD hath fpeken; I have nourified, and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

The ox knows h his owner, and the offe his mafters crib : bur Ifrael doth not know my people doth not confider.

4 Ah finfull nation a people laden with iniquity, a feed of evil-doers, children are corrupters ; they have forfaken the LORD, they have provoked the holy One of Ifrael unto anger, they are gone sway backward.

Why should ye be stricken any more? thewhole head is fick-and the whole heart

From the fole of the foot-even unto the head there is no foundneffe in it. but wounds, and bruifes, and puttifying bres : they have not been clofed, neither bound up , neither mollifled with oint-

7 Your countrey is defolate : your ciries are burnt with fire : your land ftrangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate as overthrown by strangers.

And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers as a befieged city.

9 Except the LORD of holls had left unto us a very fmall remnant, we hould have been as Sodom, and we mould have been like unto Gomorrah

10 9 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom, give ear unto the law of our GoDive people of Gomorrah. II To what purpose is the mulcitude of your facrifices unto me, faith the LORD ? I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beatts, and I delight not in the blond of bullocks, or of lambs or of he-goats.

12 When ye come to appear before mewho harh required this at your hand, to tread my courts ?

- 13 Bring no more vain oblations inmoons and fabbaths, the calling of affemblies I cannot away with : it is iniquity, ven the folemn meeting.

14 Your new moons and your appointd feafts my foul hareth, they are a trouble unto me I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands , I will hide mine eyes from your yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood. 16 Wath ye make you clean:put away

6 For unto us a childe is born unto us a fon is given; and the government (hall be upon his fhoulder: and his Name fhall be called, Wonderfull, Counfellour, The mighty God. The everlafting Father, The Prince of peace.

7 Uf the increase of his government and peace, there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to stabilsh it with judgement and with justice, from henceforth even for ever : the zeal of the LORD of holes will perform this. and it hath lighted upon Ifrael

9 And all the people fhail knows even Fohraims and the inhabitant of Samarias that fay in $ pride, & ftourneffe of heart, 10 The bricks are fallen down but we will build with hewen ftones : the fycomeres are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

II Therefore the LORD hall fet up the advertaries of Rezin against himsand loyn his enemies together.

12 The Syrians before, and the Philiflines behinde, and they hall devour If-mel with open mouth: for all this his anger is not turned away-but his hand is Aretched out (till.

I For the people turneth not unto him that fmiteth them, neither do they

feek the LORD of hofts

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Ifrael head and tailsbranch and ruth in one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head : and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to erre : and they that are led of them, are deftroyed.

17 Therefore & Lord stall have no loy

17 Therefore & Lord stall have no loy is their young men, neither hall have mercy on their fatherleffe and widows : for every one is an hypocrite and an evil doer and every mouth speaketh folly : for all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is fretched out fill

18 9 For wickedneffe burneth as the fre: it thal devour the briers and thorns, nd hall kindle in the thickers of the oreft, and they hall mount up like the lifting up of imoak.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hofts is the land darkned, and the people hall be as the fewel of the fire : no man hall spare his brother.

20 And he hall fnatch on the right hand, and be hungry, and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied : they mail cat every man the fleth, of his own arm. 21 Manaffeh, Ephraim: and Ephraim, Manaffeh: and they together shall be againg Judah: for all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out Rill.

CHAP. I The wo of tyrants. & Affyrian the red of hypocrites broken.
of Ifrael shall be faved. 20 A remnans

O unto them that decree unrighteous decrees and that write grievoulneffe which they have preferibed :

2 To turn afide the needy from judgement, and to take away the right from the poor of my people that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherleffe.

And what will we do in the day of visitation , and in the defolation which hall come from far ! to whom will ye flee for kelp ! and where will ye leave your glory

4 Without me they hall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain : for all this his anger is not turned away-but his hand is ftretched out fill.

5 TO Affyrian-the rod of mine angers and the faff in their hand is mine indignation.

I will fend him against an bypocriticall nation-& against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge to take the spoil-and to take y prey and to tread them down like the mire of the fireets.

7 Howbeit he meaneth not for neither doth his heart think to, but it is in his heart to defiroy, and cut off nations nos

8 For he faith. Are not my princes altogether kings ?

9 Is not Caino as Carchemifh ? is not Hamath as Arpal ! is not Samaria as Damafeus ?

10 As my hand hath found $ kingdoms of the idols. & whose graven images did excel them of Jerufalem and of Samarias

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, fo do to Jerufalem, and her idols?

12 Wherefore it hall come to paffe, that when the Lord bath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerufalem, I will punish the fruit of the four heart of the king of Affyria and the glory of his high looks. 13 For he faith, By the ftrength of my hand I have done it, and by my wildom for I am prudent : and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have rob-bed their treasures and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man. 14 And my hand hath found as a neft the riches of & people : and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth, and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the ax boaft it felf against him that heweth therewith ! or hall the faw magnific it felf againft him that fhaketh it? as if the rod fould make it ply against them that lift it up, or as if the ftaff thould lift up it felf, as if it were no

16 Therefore hall the Lord the Lord of hofts fend among his fat ones lear neffe and under his glory he hall hindle a burning, like the burning of a fire.

17And the light of Ifrael hall be for a are, and his holy One for a flame: and it hall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day :

18 And fall confume the glory of his foreffrand of his fruitfull field both foul and body; and they shall be as when a standard bearer fainteth.

19 And Freft of the trees of his foreft mal be fewahst a childe may write them,

20 And it shall come to paffe in that day, that the remnant of Ifrael, and fuch as are escaped of the house of Jacob shall no more again flay upon him that imote them: but thall flay upon the LORD, the boly One of Ifrael in truth.

22 For though thy people Ifrael be as half return : the confumption decreed fall overflow with righteonfacile.

23 For the Lord GOD of hofts fhall make a confumption, even determined in the midft of all the land.

24 Therefore thus faith the Lord Gop of hofts, O my people, that dwel-test in Zion-be not arraid of the Affyrian: shall smite thee with a rod, and shall Ifft up his flaff against thee, after the manner of Egypt

35 For yer a very little while, and the Indignation hall ceafe, and mine anger

13 And I have feen folly in the pro-phers of Samaria, they prophened in hall and caused my people I frael to crre-14 I have feen also in the prophers of

lerufalem an horrible thing: they com-mit adultery, and walk in lies: they flrengthen also $\oldsymbol{y}$ hands of evil doers that none doth return from his wickedneffe : they are all of them unto me as Sodoma and the inhabituits thereofsas Gomorrah Therefore thus faith the LORD of holis concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall : for from the prophets of Jerufalem is profaceneffe cone forth into all the land

16 Thus faith the LORD of hoths, Bratten not unto the words of the pro-plets that prophelie unto you; they make you vain: they fpeak a vision of heir own heart and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They fay ftill unto them that dehave peace; and they fay unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his twa beart, No evil shall come upon you, 18 For who bath flood in the counsell fifte LORD, and hath perceived, and card his word? who hath marked his ord and heard it? 19 Behold, a whirtwinde of the LORD trone forth in fury , even a grievous the head of the wicked. 20 The anger of the LORD shall not turn antil he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his eart; in the latter dayes ye hall confier it perfealy. 21 I have not fent thefe prophers yet ey ran : I have not fpoken to themyet by prophefied.

22 But if they had flood in thy coun-tils and had caused my people to hear y words; then they mound have turned

Therefore beholds the dayes come, them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23. Am I a God at hand, faith the LORD, and not a God afar off?
24 Can any hide himself in secret places, that I shall not see him, faith the LORD? do not I fill heaven and earth, frith the LORD !

25 I have heard what the prophets faid that prophetic lies in my Names aying: I have dreamed. I have dreamed.

26 How long fall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophetic lies ! yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart :

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my Name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my Name for Baal.

28 The prophet that bath a dream, let him tell a dream ; and he that bath my word, let him fpeak my word faithfully ; what is the chaff to the wheat, faith the 29 Is not my word like as a fire-faith breaketh the rock in pieces ?

30 Therefore behold. I am against the prophets, faith the LORD, that feal my word every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold. I am against the prophers. faith the LORD, that ufe their tongues, and fay, He faith.

32 Behold . I om against them that prophefie talfe dreams, laith the LOND, and do tell them and cause my people to erre by their lies, and by their lightnesses, yet I fent them not nor commanded them : therefore they hall not profit this people at all, faith the LORD.

33 And when this people or the pro-pher or a price hall ark thee, faying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then fay unto them; What burden! I will even forfake you, faith the LORD.

34 And as for the propher, and the riell, and the people that fall fay, The urden of the LORD, I will even punific that man and his house,

35 Thus thall ye fay every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the L O R D answered ? and what bath the LORD spoken ?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more : for every mans word fhall be his burden : for ye have perverted the words of the living Gode of the LORD of holls our God.

Thus halt thou fay to the prophety What hath the LORD answered thee? and what hath the LORD (poken?

38 But fith ye fay, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus faith the L OR D. Because you say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have fent unto you, faying, Ye shall not fay; The burden of the LORD :

Therefore behold, I, even I, will atterly forget you and I will for take your and the city that I gave your and your fathers and caft you out of my prefence.

40 And I will bring an everiafting reroach upon you-and a perpetuall frame, which stall not be forgotten.

"He LORD hewed me, and behold, The LORD newed mis and denois, two baskets of figs were fet before the temple of the L o R D, after that. Nebuchad-rezear king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the fon of Jehoiskim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and fmiths from lerufalem, and had brought them to Babylon

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe : and the other barket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were fo bad.

Then faid the LORD unto me; What feeA thou, Jeremiah ? and I faid. Figs: the ood fige very good; and the evil- ver evil that cannot be eaten they are so evil.

came unto me, faying

Thus faith the LORD, the God of Ifræl. Like these good sigs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away gaptive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Calde-80s for their good.
6 For I will fet mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land, and I will build them, and not pull them down, and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

And I will give them an heart to ow me, that I am the LORD, and they hall be my people, and I will be their God : for they hall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil figs which cannot be eaten, they are fo evil : ( furely thus faith the LORD)fo will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the relidue of Jerufalem that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt.

9 And I will deliver them to be re-oved into all the kingdoms of & earth for their hurt, to be a reproach, and a proverb, a taunt, and a curfe in all places, whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will fend the fword, the famine-and the pestilence among them-till shey be confumed from off the land that I gave unto them, and to their fathers.

XXV CHAP. 2 Feremied reproving the Fews disobe-dience, 8 forestetts seventy years ca-privity: 15 He foresheweth the de-Bruckion of all nations.

"He word that came to Jeremiah con-L cerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth yeer of Jeholakim the fon of Jofiah king of Judah, that was the first yeer of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Rabylon:

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet fpake unto all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerufalem, faying;

3 From the thirteenth yeer of Josiah this day, (that is the three and twentieth yeer) the word of the LORD hath come unto me and I have spoken unto you sifing early, and speaking, but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath fent unto you all his fervants the prophets rifing early and fending them, but ye have not hearkened, nor enclined your ear to hear,

They faid. Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you,and to your fathers for ever and ever.

6 And go not after other gods to ferre them, and to worthip them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands, and I will do you no hurt.

7 Ver ye have not hearkened unto me. faith the LORD, that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 Therefore thus faith the LORD of hofts, Because ye have not heari my words :

9 Behold, I will fend and rake all the families of the north faith the LORD and Nebuchad-rezzar the king of Babylon my fervant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about & will utterly defiror them, and make them an aftonifhment, and at histing, and perpetuall defolations.

10 Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladneffe, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the found of the milftones, and the light of the candle.

II And this whole land shall be a defolation, and an aftonishment, and their nations hall ferve the king of Babylon

Slehach thall drink after them. 27 Therefore thou fait fay anto them . Thus faith the LORD of hofts, & God of Ifrach Drink ye, & be drunken, and fpue, and falls and rife no more, because of the fword which I will fend among you. 28 And it shall besif they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink then thair thou fay unto them. Thus faith the LORD of holls, Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For lo-I begin to bring evil on the tity which is called by my Name, and hould ye be utterly unpunished? ye shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a fword upon all the inhabitants of the earth faith the LORD of hofts. 30 Therefore prophesie thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his hely habitation, he hall mightily roar upon his habitation he shall give a shour, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inha-buants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversie with the nations : he will plead with all fleth, he will give them that are sicked to the fword, faith the LORD.

32 Thus faith the LORD of hofts: Benation, and a great whirlwinde hall be raifed up from the coaths of the earth.

33 And the flain of $ LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even matothe other end of $earth : they hall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor laries they shall be dung upon $ ground. 34 Thowleye shepherds, and cry, and wallow your felves in the after, ye prin-tipall of the flock : for the dayes of your flaighter, and of your dispersions are accomplished, and ye shall fall like a pleafant veffell.

35 And the thepherds thall have no way to Acemor the principall of the flock to egape.

36 A voice of the cry of the hepherds, and an howling of the principall of the fock that be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are tat down because of the flerce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forfaken his covert, as the on: for their land is defolate, because of the flercenesse of the oppressour, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAP. XXVI.

Geremiah exhorteth to repentance:

He is apprehended: 12 His apology:

In the beginning of the reign of Je-holakim the fon of Josiah king of Judah, came this word from the L o R D. faying;

Thus faith the LORD, Stand in the court of the L O R D s house and speak unto all the cities of Judah , which co to worthip in the LORDS house, all the words that I command thee to fpeak unto them : diminio not a word ;

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them, because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou halt fay unto them. Thus faith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law which I have fet before you.

5 To hearken to the words of my fervants the prophets, whom I fent unto you both rifing up early, and fending them (but ye have not hearkeneds)
6 Then will I make this house like

Shiloh and will make this city a curfe to all the nations of the earth.

So the priefts, and the prophers, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking thefe words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to passe when Jere-miah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to fpeak unto all the people that the priefts nd the prophers and all the people took him, faying, Theu thait furely die.

9 Why halt thou prophetied in the
thail be like Shiloh, and this city thail be defolate without an inhabitant? and all defolare without an inhabitant? and all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the L O R D.

10 I When the princes of Judah heard these things then they came up from the kings house, unto the house of the Lo RD, and fat down in the entry of the now gate of the L O R D S house.

14 Then spake the princips and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the peoples saying. This man is worthy to die; for he hash prophesic dagainst this die; for he hath prophefied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, faying,

The LORD feat me to prophefic against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard:

13 Therefore now amend your wayers and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your Godjand the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand : do with me as feemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certains that if ye put me to death, ye shall furely bring innocent blood upon your felves, and upon this city and upon the inhabitants thereof : for of a truth the L o R D harh fent me unto you, to speak all thefe words in your ears. Z 2 16 Then

18 And I will persecute them with the fword, with the famine, and with the peftilence, and will deliver them to be renoved to all the kingdoms of the carth, to be a curfe,and an aftonifhment, and an hilling, and a reproach among all the na-

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, faith the LORD, which I sent water them by my fervants the prophets, rifing up early, and fending them, but ye would not hear faith the LORD.

20 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have fent from Jerusalem to Babylon.

21 Thus faith the LORD of hosts, the God of Ifraelsof Ahab the fon of Kolajahs and of Zedekish the fon of Masfeiah, which prophesie a lie unto you in my Name Behold I wil deliver them into the hand of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Baby-lon-& he that flay them before your eyes.

22 And of them shall be taken up a curfe by all the captivity of ludah which are in Babyloon/sying. The LOND make the like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon rofted in the fire

23 Because they have committed villany with their neighbours wives , and have fpoken lying words in my Name, which I bave not commanded them, even I knows and am a witneste faith the LORD.

Thus halt thou alfo fpeak to Shemaiabithe Nebelamite faying

25 Thus speaketh the Lond of hosts, as God of Israel, faying, Because thou haft fent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerufalem, and to Ze-phaniah the fon of Maaseiah the priest, nd to all the priefts faying;

The LORD hath made thee prieft the tead of Jehoiada the priefly that ye hould be officers in the house of the Lord for every man that is mad & ma beth himfelf a propher that thou fouldeft put him in prilon; and in the flocks :

27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himfelf a prophet to you ?

28 For therefore he fent unto us in Babylon, faying, This captivity is long, build ye houses, and dwell in them, and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them, 29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. 30 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, faying, 31 Send to all them of the captivity, faying, Thus faith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite, Because that Shemaiah hath prophefied unto your and I fent him not, and he caused you to truft in a lie ;

32 Therefore thus faith the LORD,Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nebelamite. & his feed : he fhall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither fall he behold the good that I will do for my people, faith the LORD : because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

I. God fherveth Jeremiah the Jews refurn : 4 Their deliverance after trosble. 10 He comforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. He word that came to Jeremiah from the LoRD, faying,

Thus fpeaketh the LORD God of Ifrael-faying. Write thee all the words that I have fpoken unto thee in a book

For lo , the dayes come , faith the LORD, that I will bring again the capti vity of my people Ifrael, and Judah, faith the LORD, and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers and they hall poffeffe it.

4 ¶ And thefe are the words that the LODD spake concerning Israel, and con-cerning Judah.

For thus faith the LORD , We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and fee whether a m dorh travell with childe ! wherefore do I fee every man with his hands on his loynes as a woman in travelland all face are turned into paleneffe ?

5 But thou halt die in peace, and with the burnings of thy fathers the former rings, which were before thee, fo hal they burn odonys for thee, and they will lament thee, faying, Ah, lord; for I have pronounced the word faith the LORD. 6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake Judah in Jerufalem.

7 When the king of Babylons army the cities of Judah, that were left against Luchifis and against Azekah : for these defenced cities remained of the cities of

8 This is the word that came unto remish from the LORD, after that the ling Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem to proclaim liberty unto them;

That every man should let his manfervant and every man his maid-fervant, being an Hebrew, or an Hebreweffe, go free, that none should serve himself of them to wit, of a lew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-fervant, and every one his maidfervant go frees that none frould ferve themselves of them any more; then they obeyed and let them go.

11 But afterwards they turned , and emfed the fervants and the hand-maids, whom they had let go free to return and brought them into fubjection for fervants, and for kand-maids.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from & LORD, faying, 13 Thus faith the LORD the God of Ifree, I made a covenant with your fa-thers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, faying, 14 At the end of feven yeers let ye go every man his brother, an Hebrew, which hath been fold unto thee: and when he hath ferved thee fix yeers, thon Walt let him go free from thee : but your fathers bearkened not unto me, neither enclined

their ear

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my fight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbours an re had made a covenant before me in the cuse which is called by my Name.

16 But ye turned and polluted my Name, and caufed every man his fervants and every man his handmaid, whom he had fer at liberty at their pleasure, to reunto you for fervants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus faith the LORD, Ye have not hearkened unto me in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and everyman to his neighbour:behold. I pro-claim a liberty for you, faith the LORDs to the fword to the peffilence, and to the famine, and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me- when they cut the calf in twain, and paffed beaween the parts thereof.

19 The princes of Judahand & princes of lerufalem, the cunuchs and the priefts, and all the people of the land, which paffed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into $ hand of them that feek their life, and their dead bodies that be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven and to the beafts of the earth,

21 And Zedekish king of Judah, and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that feek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylons army, which are gone up from you. 22 Behold: I will command, faith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city, and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire ; and I will make the cities of Judah a defolation without an inhabitant

2 Go umo the house of the Rechabites and fpeak unto them, and bring them into the horse of the LRRD, into one of the chambers and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaszaniah the fon of Jeremish, the fon of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his fons, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD: into the chamber of the fons of Hanan-the fon of Igdaliah a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maafeiah the fon of Shallum, the keeper of the door.

And I fet before & fons of the house of the Rechabites, potsfull of wine, and tups & I faid unto them. Drink ye wines commanded us faying. Ye shall drink no-wine neither ye nor your fons for ever.

7 Neither shall ye build house nor fowe feed nor plant vineyards, nor have any: but all your dayes ye shall dwell in-rents, that ye may live many dayes in the land where ye be thrangers.

Jonadab the fon of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wipe all our daves, we, our wives, our fons, nor our daughters :

9 Nor 10 build houses for us to dwell in, neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor feed.

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

II But it came to passe when Nebu-chad-rezzar king of Babylon came up into the landsthat we faid. Come, and let us go to Jerufalem for fear of the army of the Caldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah saying.

Thus faith the LORD of hofts the God of Ifrael. Go, and tell the men of Judah-and inhabitants of Jerufalem, Will ye not receive inftruction to hearken to ay words, faith the LORD

14 The words of Jonadab & fon of Redrink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their fa-thers commandment; notwith(tanding I ave spoken unto you, rising early and peaking but ye hearkened not unto me. 15 I have fent alfo unto you all my ferending them faying Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to ferve them, and ye fall dwell in the Jand which I have given to you, and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your eare, nor hearkened unto me. 16 Because the fons of Jonadabathe son of Rechab, have performed the com-mandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people bath not hearkened unto me;

17 Therefore thus faith the LORD

God of hofts the God of Ifrael Behold. will bring upon Judah, and upon all the anhabitants of Jerusalem, all the coil that I have pronounced against them : because beve spoken unto them, but they have or heard, and I have called unto them, t they have not answered.
18 And Jeremiah faid unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus faith the LORD of hofts, the God of Ifrael, Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jona-dab your father, and kept all his pre-eepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you z 19 Therefore thus faith the LORD of holls, the God of Ifrael, Jonadab the fon of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

2. Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have (poken unto thee against Hizzel, and against lu-dab, and against all the nations, from the day I fpake unto thee, from the dayes of Jofiah, even unto this day,

It may be that the house of Judah will bear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them that they may return every man from his cvil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their fin

Then Jeremiah called Baruch the for of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had fpoken unto him upon a roll of a book. 5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch faying, I am thut up, I cannot go into the house of the LORD.

6 Therefore go thou and read in the roll which thou haft written from my mouth the words of the L o R D in the cars of the people, in the Lords house upon the falling day: and also thou halt read them in the ears of all Judah, the come out of their cities.

7 It may be they wil prefent their fup-plication before $ LORDs and wil return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people

8 And Baruch & fon of Neriah did accommanded him-reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORDS house.

And it came to paffe in the fift yeer of Jehoiakim the fon of Josiah king of Judah. in the ninth moneth, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerufalemand to all the cople that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerufalem.

10 Then read Barnch in the bookthe words of Jeremiah, in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariab the fon of Shaphan the fcriber in the hig court at the entry of the new gate of the LONDS housesin & ears of all the people. II When Michaiah the son of Ge-mariah the son of Shaphan had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD !

12 Then be went down into the king house into the scribes chamber, and locall the princes fare there, even Elifhama the feribe, and Delaiah the fon of Shemaiah and Elnathan the fon of Achbor, and Ge-mariah the fon of Shaphan, and Zedekin the fon of Hananiah and all the princes.

12 Then Michaigh declared unto the all the words that he had heard when Es-ruch read $ book in the ears of the people 13 Therefore all the princes feet Jelie di the fon of Nethaniah, the fon of the lemiabathe fon of Cushinumo Bankhay ing. Take in thy hand y roll wherein the haft read in the ears of the people and come. So Baruch the fon of Neriah rook the roll in his hand, and came unto them

15 And they faid unto him, Sir dons now, and read it in our cars. So Baruch read it in their cars.

16 Now it came to paffe when they had heard all the words they were afraid bor ne and other, and faid unto Baruch, We will furely tel the king of all thefe words 17 And they asked Barach faying. Tell us now, How diddt thou write all the words at his mouth ?

21 So the king fent Jehudi to fet the soll, and he took it out of Elifama the feribes chambers and Jehudi read it in the ears of the kings and in the ears of all the princes which flood beside the king.

22 Now the king fate in the winterafter on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to paffe, that when lehad had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and caft it into the fre that was on the hearth, untill all the rell was confumed in the fire that mas on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments-neither the king, nor any of his fervants that heard all thefe words

25 Nevertheleffe-Elnathan-and Delaishand Gemarish had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll, but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the fon of Hammelech, and Seraiah the fon of Azriela and Shelamiah the fon of Abdiel, to take Baruch the fcribe, and Jeremish the prophet : but the LORD hid them. 27 Then & word of the LORD came to Jeremiah (after that the king had burnt the roll and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah) faying ; 28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt.

29 And thou thalt fay to Jehoiakimi king of Judah, Thus faith the L G R D. ou haft burnt this roll, faying, Why halt thou written therein, faying, The king of Babylon fall certainly come and deftroy this land, and hall cause to cease from thence man and beaft ? 30 Therefore thus faith the LOND of Jehojakim king of Judah. He mall have me to fit upon the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat and in the night to the froft. 31 And I will punish himsand his feeds and his fervants for their iniquity, and I will bring upon them and upon the inha-bitants of Jerufalem and upon the men of Judah all the evil that I have pronounced spainst them: but they hearkened not. $2.9 Then rook Jeremiah another rolland gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the ook which Jehoiakim king of Judah had ent in the fire, and there were added belides unco them many like words.

HAP. XXXVII 1 Zelekiah lendeth to Feremiah to pray for the people. 6 Feremiah prophesieth the Caldenus rejurn : 11 He w pus in prifon : 16 Affureth Zedekinh of the captivity: 18 Intreating for his liber-ty, he obtainesh favour. A Nd king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned in stead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of ludah.

2 But neither be, nor his fervants, nor the people of the land did hearken unro the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king fent Jehucal the fon of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the fon of Maafeiah the prieft, to the prohet Jeremiah, faying Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in, and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prifon.

Then Pharaohs atmy was come forth out of Egypt : and when the Caldeans that befreged Jerufalem, heard ridings of themsthey departed from Jerufalem

6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, faying

7 Thus faith the LORD, the God of Ifrael, Thus hall ye fay to the king of Judah, that fent you unto me to enquire of me, Behold, Pharaohs army which is come forth to help you. hall return to Egypt into their own land.

And the Caldeans fall come againand fight against this city and take it and burn it with fire. Thus faith the LORD, Deceive not our felves, faving, The Caldeans shall furely depart from us : for they shall not 10 For though we had smitten the whole army of the Caldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rife up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to paffe that when the army of the Caldeans was broken up from Jerufalem for fear of Pharaohs army, 12 Then Jeremitah went forth out of Jerufalem to go into the land of Benjamin to separare himself thence in the midft of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward mes there, whose name was I rijabathe fon of Shelemiah, the fon of Hananiah, and he took leremiah the prophet, faying, Thou falleft away to the Caldeans.

14 Then faid Jeremiah. It is falfe. I fall not away to the Caldeans : but hearkened not to him : fo Irijah took Jeremiah and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah and fenore him & put him in prison, in the house of Jonathan the feribe-for they had made that the prifon, 16 When Jeremiah was entered lato the dungeon, and into the cabins, and fe-remish had remained there many dayes :

17 Then Zedekish the king feat & took him out, and the king afked him fecretly in his boufe, and faid. Is there any word from the L ORD! And Jeremiah faid, There is : for, fa'd he, Thou fait be delivered into & hand of the king of Babylon.

128 Mers-

18 Moreover-Jeremish faid unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy fervants, or against this people. I ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets; which prophesied unto you, saying. The king of Babylon shall not come against your nor against this land !

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king; let my supplication, I pray thee be accepted before thee, that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they mould commit Jeremiah into the court of the prifon, and that they hould give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers (free than till all the bread in the city were (pent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prifon.

Faremiah in the dungeon: 7 Some en-largement obtained. 14 The king coun-felled to feve his life. Hen Shephatiah & fon of Mattanand Gedaliah the fon of Pafhur and Jucal the fon of Shelemiah and Pafaur & fon of Malchiab heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people saying,

2. Thus saith the LORD. He that remaineth in this city, hall die by the Grand, by the famine, and by the peftileace ; but he that goeth forth to the Caldeans, fhall live : for he fhall have his life for a prey, and fhall live.

3 Thus faith the LORD. This city mall rely be given into the hand of the king ylons army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes faid unto the king. We befeech thee-let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them : for this man feeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

Then Zedekish the king faid, Behold, he is in your hand, ; for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the fon of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison and they let down Jeremish with cords : and is the dungeon there was no waters but mire : fo Jeremiah funk in the mire.

Now when Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian-one of the emucha, which was In the kings house heard that they had pur Ieremiah in the dungeon, (the king then Sitting in the gate of Benjamin.)

Ebed-melech went forth out of the kings house and spake to the king faying, 9 My lord the king, these men have done evill in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have call into the dungeon, and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is for there is no more bread in the city 10 Then the king commanded Ebednelech the Ethiopian, faying, Take from ence thirty men with thee, and take up Ieremiah the prophet out of the dungeon

him, and went into the house of the king. under the treasury, and took thence old cast clours, and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian faid. unto Jeremiah, Put now these oid caft clouts, and rotten rags under thine armholes-under & cords. And Jeremiah did fo 13 So . they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the due geon, and Jeremiah remained in thecourt of the prifon

14 Then Zedekish the king fent and took Jeremiah the prophet moto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD, and the king said unto Jeremials I will ask thee a question : hide nothing from me. 15 Then Jeremiah faid unto Zedekia If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not furely put me to death and if I give thee counfel, wilt thou not hearken unto me;

16 So the king fware fecretly unto leremiah faying. As the LRRD livethaha made us this foul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that feek thy life.
17 Then faid Jeremiah unto Zedekiah

Thus faith the LORD, the God of hof the God of Ifrael, If thou will affuredly go forth unto the king of Babylons pria ces then thy foul hall live, and this city fhall not be burnt with fire, and thou fall live, and thine house, 18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylons princes, then fall this city be given into the hand of the Caldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king faid unte. leremiah-I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Caldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah faid, They shall not deliver thee : obey, I befeech thee, the voice of the L O R D which I speak unto thee: fo it hall be well unto thee, and thy foul hall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forthehis i the word that the LORD hath flewed me. 22 And behold all the women that are left in the king of Judahs house, shall be brought forth to the king of Babylom princes, and those momen shall say. The friends have fet thee on, and have pr vailed against thee : thy feet are funk is the mire and they are turned away back

23 So they shall bring out all the wives, and thy children to the Caldeans and thou halt not escape out of their hand-but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon : and thou thak cault

this city to be burnt with fire. 24 Then faid Zedekiah unto Jenmiah, Let no man know of these words and thou halt not die. 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, & they come unto then and fay unto thee. Declare unto us now what thou haft faid unto the king; hide it not from us, and we will not pur thee to death; allo what the king faid anto thee 25 Then thou halt fay unto them I presented my supplication before the

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and faid unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

2 Now the LORD harh brought its and done according as he hath faid : because ye have finned against the LORDs and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now-behold-1 loofe thee this da from the chains which were upon thine hand: if it feem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee; but if it feem ill into thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear : behold, all the land is before thee : whither it feemeth good and convenient for thee to gos thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet gone backs he faid. Go back also to Gedaliah the fon of Ahikam the fon of Shaphan whom the king of Babylon hath made governour over all the cities of Judah, and dwel with him among the people : or go wherefoever it feemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals, and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the fon of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwell with him among the people that were

7 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men heard that the king of ylon had made Gedalish the fon of Ahikam governour in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away ca-

The word that came to Jeremiah conthe land of Egypt, which dwell in and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the countrey of Pathros faying, 2 Thus faith the LORD of hofts , the God of Ifrael , Ye have feen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the ciries of Judah : and beholds

this day they area defolation, and no man dwelleth therein

3 Because of their wickednesse which anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to ferve other gods whom they knew motaneither they you nor your fathers.

4. Howbeits I fent unto you all my fervants the prophets rifing early and fending them daying. Oh do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not nor enclined their ear to turn from their wickedneffe, to burn no incense unto other gods. 6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth and was kindled in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerufalemand they are wasted, and desolate, as

Therefore now thus faith the LORD, the God of hofts, God of tirsels. Where-fore commit ye this great evil against your fouls, to cut off from you man and woman-childe and fuckling out of Judah to leave you none to remain :

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands , burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egyptawhither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut your felves off, and that ye might be a curfe-and a reproach among all the nations of the earth !

9 Have ye forgotten the wickednes of your fathers , and the wickednesse of the kings of Judah, and the wickednesse of and the wickednes of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judahand in the fireets of Jerufalem

10 They are not humbled even unto this day neither have they feared nor walked in my law , nor in my flatutes that I fer before you and before your fathers

11 Therefore thus faith the LORD of hofts the God of Ifrael-Behold-I will fet my face against you for evil, and to out off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of ludah . that have fer their faces to go into the land of Egypt, to fojourn there, and they shall all be confumed, and fall in the land of Egypt : they mall even be confumed by the fword and by the famine they mall die , from the leaft even unto the greatest , by the fword , and by thefimine : and they hall be an execration and an aftonishment, and a curfe, and a re-

14 So that none of the remnant of h dah which are gone into the land of Egypt to fojourn there hall escape, or remain's that they hould return into the defire to return to dwell there : for not hall return but fuch as shall escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that flood by a reat multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt , in Pathron answered Jeremiah saying,

16 As for the word that thou half for ken unto us in the Name of the LORD, a And be did that which was evil in the ey s of the L o R Daccording to all that lehoiskim had done.

3 For through the anger of the Lord it came to pane in Jerufalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his pr fence, that Zedekish rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to paffe in the nint yeer of his reign, in the tenth monethin the tenth day of the moneth, that Neduchad-rezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his army against ferufalem and pirched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was belieged unto the eleventh yeer of king Zedekiah.
6 And in the fourth moneth in the ninth day of the moneth, the famine was fore in the city, fo that there was so bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up and all e men of war fied , and went forth on of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the kings garden ( now the Caldeses were by the city round about ) and they went by the way of the plain

8 ¶ But the army of the Caldeans profued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was fcattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up umo the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath : where he gave judgement upon him. 10 And the king of Babylon flew the fons of Zedekiah before his eyes : he flew alfo all the princes of Judah in Riblah. shand the king of Babylon bound him is chains, and carried him to Babylen, and put him in prison till & day of his dent.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth moneth inthe tenth day of the moneth ( which was the nincteenth yeer of Nebuchad-rezzar ting of Babylon) came Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, which ferved the king of

Babylon, into Jerufalem; 13 And burnt the house of the LORD and the kings house, and all the house of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men burnt be with fire.

14 And all the army of the Calden that were with the captain of the gunti down all the walls of Jerafaien round about.

15 Then Nebuzaradan the capraind the guard carried away captive certaind the poor of the people and the relidued the people that remained in the city me those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon and the rest of the multimit.

11 And concerning the pillars the height of one pillar mass eighteen cubits, and a filler of twelve cubits did compafe it and the thicknesse thereof mass four dugers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapiter of braffe was upon it and the height of one chapiter was five cubits with net-works and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about all of spon the freenal pillar also, and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six porne-granates on a side, and all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an bundred

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraish the chief prieft, and Zephaniah the iccord prieft, and the three keepers of the door.

35 he took also out of the city an enach, which had the charge of the men of war and seven men of them char were seer the kings persons which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the both, who mustered the people of the land, and threstone men of the people of the inal that were found in the midst of the city. 26 So Nebutaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27And the king of Babylon fanote the maand put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath: thus indah was carried away captive out of his own land.

9 We gat our bread with the perill of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderneffe to Our fkin was black like an oven, because of the terrible famine. 11 They ravished the women in Zion, end the maids in the cities of Judah. 12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men to grinde, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the pue, the young men from their mulick.
15 The joy of our heart is cealed, our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crown is fallen from our head ; wo unto us that we have linned.

o unto us that we have finned.

7 For this our heart is faint for the

19 Thou-O LORD-remained for ever a thythrone from generation togeneration.
30 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forfake us to long time?

21 Turn thou us unte thee, O Long and we hall be turned : renew our dayes as of old. 22 But thou haft utterly rejelted us : thou art very wroth against us.

The word of the LORD came exprefly unto Ezekiel the prieft, the fon of niver Chehar and the hand of the Lord was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked and behold a whirlwinde came out of the north, a great brightnesse mas about it, and out of the midft thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midft of the fire. 5 Alfe out of the mide thereof come the likenesse of four living cresquees, and is was their appearance : they had the likeneffe of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings. 7 And their feet were ftraight feet,and the fole of their feet mas tike the tole of a calves foot, and they fparkled like the colour of burnified braffe.

8 And they had the hands of a man un der their wings on their four fides, and they four had their faces, and their wings. 9 Their wings were joyned one to ty four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion on the right fide, and the our had the face of an ox on the left fide: they four alfo had the face of an eagle.

II Thus mere their faces : and their ngs were freiched upward two mings severy one were joyned one to another, and two covered their bodies,

12 And they went every one Graight breard , whither the spirit was to go. ey went : and they turned nor when

13 As for the likenesse of the living stume , their appearance was like burning coals of fire's and like the appearance of lamps : it went up and do mong the living creatures, and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran; and returned "as the appearance of a flack of turned as a lightning.

15 9 Now as I beheld the living creatures sheld-one wheel upon an lightch has the living creatures with his foot fates.

16 The appearance of the wheels and the shell was a life unto the colour of a beryl : and they four had one likeseffer and their appearance, and their work was wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four fides ; and they returned not when they went. 18 As for their rings, they were fo high that they were dreadfull, and their rings were full of eyes round about them four, 10 And when the living creatures wents the wheels went by them : and when the earth, the wheels were lift up 20 Whitherfoever the fpirit was to gos they went, thither was their fpirit to go, and the wheels were lifted up over a-gainft them: for the spirit of the living creature mas in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went ; and when those flood these flood ; and when those were lifted up from the earth-the wheels were lifted up over against thems for the spirit of the living creature mas

22 And the likeneffe of the firmamen upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible cryftall . firetched forth over their heads above

23 And under the firmament mere their wings ftraight, the one toward the others every one had two which covered on this fide ; and every one had two waich covered on that fide their bodies,

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters: as the voice of the Almie tysthe voice of speechs as the noise of an hoft : when they flood , they let down their wings.

9 Son of man-prophetic and fay. The faith the LORD, Say A favord a favord is pened and also fourbified solt is farpened to make a fore flanghter; it is fourbified that it may gitter; fould we then make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my fon as every tree,

II And he hath given it to be fourbified , that it may be handled : this fword is marpened, and it is fourbified to give it into the hand of the flayer.

12 Cry and howl, fon of man, for it mall be upon my people, it that be upon all the princes of Ifrael: terrours by reason of the sword, thall be upon my people : fanite therefore upon thy thight the frord contemn even the rod it fall be no more, faith the Lord Gob.

14 Thou therefore, fon of man prophetie and smite thine hands together and let the fword be doubled the third rime the fword of & flain it it the fword of the great men that are flain, which entereth into their privic chambers.

15 I have fet the point of the front against all their gases, that their bear may faint and their ruines be mukiplied. Ah, it is made bright, it is wrapt up for the flaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other either on the right hand, or on the left, whitherfeever thy face'is fer.

17 I will alfo fmire mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rea: I the LORD have faid it.

18 The word of the LORD came unto me again, faying,

19 Alfo thou fon of man, appoint the two wayes, that the fword of the king of Babylon may come : both twain hall come forth out of one land : and chi thou a place, chuse it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the fword my come to Rabbath of the Ammonites and to Judah in Jerufalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon flood # the parting of the way at the head of the two wayes to ufe divination : he m his arrows bright ; he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divinalon for Jerufalem to appoint captains to open the mouth in the flaughter to hit up the voice with fhouting , to spy mount, and to build a fert.

23 And it tall be unto them as a fait divination in their light, to them the have fworm outhe : but he will call to me nembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24Therefore thus fairh the Lord Gob Because ye have made your iniquity tok remembred, in that your transgresson are discovered so that in all your doing your fins do appear : because, I fay, that ye are come to remembrance, ye hall ke

Son of man-there were two women, the daughteers of one mother : And they committed whordoms in

Egypt they committed whordom in their youth: there were their brefts preffed. nd their they bruifed the tests of their

And the names of them mere Aholah the elder , and Aholibah her fifter : and they were mine, and they bare fons and daughters : thus mere their names : Samaria is Aholah and Jerufalem Aholibah. 5 And Aholah played the harlot when he was mine, and she doted on her lo-terson the Asyrians her neighbours.

6 Which where clothed with blues captains and rulers, all of them defireable oung menshorimen riding upon hories, 7 Thus the committed her whoredoms with them , with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom the doted, with all their idols the defiled her felf.

Neither left the her whoredoms brought from Egypt : for in her youth they lay with ber, and they bruised the bretts of her virginity, and poured their whordoms upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her inso the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Affyrians upon whom the doted

19 Thefe difcovered her nakedneffe, they tooke her fons, and her daughters, and flew her with the fword; and the ecame famous among womens for they rich king of Egypt, and prophetie against him, and against all Egypt.

3 Speak and fay, Thus faith the Lord Gop. Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lihid, My river is mine own, and I have made it for my felf.

4 But I will put hooks in thy chaws; and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to flick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up our of the midft of thy rivers, and all the fifth of thy rivers hall flick unto thy fcales

s And I will leave thee thrown late the wildernesse, thee, and all the fish of ty rivers : thou halt fall upon the open felds, thou thalt not be brought together, nor gathered : I have given thee for meat to the beafts of the field, and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt hall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the boule of Ifrael.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy bands thou didft break and rent all their houlder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakeft, and madeft all their loins to be at a Rand.

8 Therefore thus faith the Lord GoD: Behold I will bring a fword upon thee, and cut off man and beaft out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt hall be defolate and waste, and they shall know that I on the LORD: because he hath faid, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and defolate, from the tower of Syene, even mie the border of Ethiopia,

11 No foot of man shall passe thorow it, nor foot of beaft hall paffe thorow it, neither hall it be inhabited fourty geers.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in & mida of the countreys that are defolate, and her cities among the clties that are laid wafte, shall be defolate fourty yeers: and I will featter the Egy-ptians among the nations, and will disperse them thorow the countreys.

13 Yet thus faith the Lord GoDs At the end of fourty yeers will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither

14 And I will bring again the capti-vity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation, and they fhall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms, neither shall it exalt it felf an more above the nations : for I will dlminish them that they shall no more rule yer the nations.

16 And it shalle no more the considence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to rememberance, when they shall look after them; but they shall know that I am the Lord GoD.

17 ¶ And it came to paffe in the feven and twentieth yeer, in the first moneth in the first day of the moneth, the word of the LOAD came unto me, faying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon caused his army to ferre a great service against Tyrus, every head was made baid, and every moulder was peeled, yet had he no wages, nor his ar-my for Tyrus for the service that he had ferved against it.

19 Therefore thus frith the Lord Gop Behold I will give the land of Egypt un to Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take her multitude, and take her poil, and take her prey, and it shall be

20 9 And it came to paffe in geleventh yeer, in the firl moneth, in the feventh day of the moneth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, faying,

21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and los it a roller to binde it , to make it Grong to hold the fword.

Therefore thus faith & Lord GoD, Behold. I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the ftrong, and that which was broken : and I will spufe the fword to fall our of his hand, 23 And I will featter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them thorow the countreys.

24 And I will ftrengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, & put my fword in his hand : but I wil break Pharaohs arms and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will frengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I hall put my fword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will fcatter the Egyptians among the nations, and difperfe them among the countreys, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of Ged could not hide him : the fir-trees wert not like his boughs, and the chefacttrees were not like his branches: not any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches : fo that all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of Gods envied him.

10 Therefore thus faith the Lend GOD. Because thou hast lifted up thy felf in height, and he hath thot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart's lifted up in his height :

II I have therefore dolivered him ins the hand of the mighty one of the her-

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither fhoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees fland up in their height, all that drink water : for they are all delivered unto death, ro the nether parts of the earth, in the midft of the children of men, with them that go down to the pir

15 Thus faith the Lord Gop. In the day when he went down to the grave , I caused a mourning . I covered the deep for him and I restrained the floods thereof and the great waters were flayed, and I cuifed Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to fhake at the found of his fall , when I caft him down to hell, with them that defcend into the pir : and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon all that drink water half be comforted in the nether parts of

is To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet faalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of f earth: thou fhalt lie in f midft of the uncircumcifed's with them that be flain by the fword : this as Pharaoh and all his multitudesfaith the Lord GOD.

A lamentation for Egypt: 11 The food of Babylon shall destroy it: 17 Is shallbe brought down to hell with all the sucircumcifed nations.

A Nd it came to paffe in the twelfth rft day of the moneth that the word of the LORD came unto merfayings

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharach king of Egypt, and fay unto him Thou art like a young lion of the na-tions and thou art as a whale in the feas : and thou cameft forth with thy rivers and troubledft the waters with thy feet, and fouledft their rivers.

Thus faith the Lord GOD; I will therefore (pread out my net over thee, with a company of many people, and they hall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then wil I leave thee upon the land,

I will caft thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee , and I will fill the beafts of the whole earth with thee

5 And I wil lay thy flesh upon 5 mountins, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou fwimmelt even to the ountains &the rivers malbe full of thee. 7 And when I that put thee out I wil coof dark: I will cover the fun with a cloud,

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee and for darknes upon thy land faith the Lord Gop.

I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I hall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countreys which thou hast not known.

10 Year I will make many people amazed at thee and their kings thall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my fword before them , and they fhail tremble at every moment; every man for his own life in the day of thy fall.

II For thus faith the Lord GoD. The fword of the king of Babylon fhall come upon thee.

12 By the fwords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations all of them : and they fhail spoil the pomp of Egypt and all the mul-titude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 Iwil destroy also all the beafts thereof from befides the great waters, neither that foot of man trouble them any mores nor the hoofs of heafts trouble them

14 Then will I make their waters deep and cause their rivers to run like oil, faith

the Lord Gop.

15 When I hal make the land of Egypt defolate, and the countrey hall be dellitute of that whereof it was full ; when I hall fmite all them that dwell therein, then that they know that I am the LORD

This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her : the daughters of the nations shall lament, her:they shall lament for her even for Egypt, and for all her multitade faith the Lord GoD.

17 It came to paffe also in the twelfth that the word of the L o R D came unto

18 Son of man , wait for the multitude of Egypt and cast them down even hers and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth , with them that go down into the pir.

19 Whom doch thou paffe in beauty?
go down, and be thou laid with the un-

2 Son of manifpeak to the children of thy people, and fay unto them, When I bring the fword upon a land if the people of the land take a man of their coalts and for him for their warchman

3 If when he feeth the fword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the peoples

4 Then who oever heareth the found of the trumpet, and raketh not warning;

of the trainer, and taken him awayshis blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the found of the trumper, and took not war, may his blood shall be upon him to the har taketh warning, and the continue to the trumper him to the that taketh warning, and the continue to the trumper him to the that taketh warning, and the continue to the trumper.

6 But if the warchman fee the fword come, and blow not the trumper and the people be not warned: if the fword come and rake any perion from among them, he is taken away in his inliquity: but his blood will I require at the warchnans hand,

7 So thou, O fon of man. I have ftr thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou halt hear the word at my uthand warn them from me

8 When I fay unto the wicked Owicked man, thou halt furely die: if thou doft not fpeak to warn the wacked from his ways that wicked man hall die in his iniquity: but his blood wil I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheleffe, if thou warn the wicked of his way, to turn from it : if he do not turn from his way he shall die in his iniquity:but thou haft delivered thy foul,

10 Therefore O thou fon of maniferak duto the house of Israel . Thus ye speaks saying, If our transgressions and our sine be upon us , and we pine away in them, how should we then live

11 Say unto them. As I live, faith the Lord GoD-I have no pleasure in & death of the wicked , but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye , turn ye from your evil wayes; for why will ye

12 Therefore thou fon of man, fay anto the children of thy people. The righteoutnes of the righteous hall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickednesse of the wicked he sal not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickednes-neither that the righteous be able to livefor his righteousnelle in the day that he finneth.

13 When I shall fay to the righteour that he fhall furely live : if he truft to his own rightcournes, and commit iniquity, all his righteoufneffes thall not be re nembered : but for his intquity that he hath committed he fhall die for it.

14 Again, when I fay unto the wicked, Thou shall furely die ; if he turn from his fin, and do that which is lawfull and

15 If the wicked reftore the pledet give again & he had robbed , walk in the flatures of life, without committing inquity : he thal furely lives he thal not die.

16 None of his fins that he hath com mitted, hall be mentioned unto him : he bath done that which is lawful and right he shall furely live.

17 Tet the children of thy people fay, The way of the Lord is not equal : but as for them their way is not equal."

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousnes, and committeeh iniquityshe hall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickednesser and do that which is lawfull and right he hall live thereby 20 Yet ye fay. The way of the Lord is not equall : O ye house of Ifrael , I will julge you every one after his wave.

IN the five and twentieth yeer of our captivity in the beginning of the yeer, in the tenth day of the moneth, in the fourteenth yeer after that the city was smitten, in the felf fame day the hand of the LORD was upon me , and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me Into the land of Ifrael , and fer me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the fourh.

And he brought me thither; and bebold there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of brasse, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring seed ; and he flood in the gate.

And the man faid unto me ; Son of man-behold with thine eyes, and hear with hine care, and fer thy heart upon all that I half hew thee; for to the intent that

I might flew them unto thee, art then brought hither: declare all that theu fred to the house of Ifrael.

5 And behold a wall on the outlide of the house round about : and in the many hand a measuring reed of fix cubits long by the cubit, and an hand breadth ; fo he meafured the breadth of the bailding one reed, and the height, one reed.

6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the flairs thereof and measured the threshold of the gate , which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gatembich was one reed broad.

And every little chamber masone reed long and one reed broad & between the little chambers mere five cubits, and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within mas one reed.

He measured also the porch of the gate within-one reed.

Then measured he the porch of the gare-eight cubits, and the posts thereof, two cubits: and the porch of the gate mas inward.

pare : the length thereof mas fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows , and their arches, and their palm-trees, were after the meafure of the gate that looketh to-wards the east, and they went up unto it by feven fleps, and the arches thereof

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east, and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.
24 After that he brought me toward the fouth, and behold a gate toward the South, and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof according to thefe

25 And there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows, the length mas fifty cubitsand & breadth five & twenty cubits. 26 And there were feven fteps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them, and it had palm-trees, one on this fide, and another on that fide, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the fouth, and he meafured from gate to gate toward the fouth, an bundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to $ inner court by the feuth-gate, and he measured the fouth-gate according to these measures.

29 And & little chambers thereof, and the polis thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures, and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about : if was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about mere five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad

21 And the arches thereof mere toward the utter court, and paim-trees were up-it bed eight fteps. court toward the east, and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these meafures, and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about ; it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof mere toward the onemard court, and palm-trees were upon the poles thereof on this fide, ed on that fide, and the going up to it bad eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the northgare, and measured it according to these meafures.

36 The little chambers thereof, the its thereof and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about : the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof mere toward the utter court, and palm-trees mere upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that fide, and the going up to it had eight fleps

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof mere by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt-offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this fider and two tables on that fide, to flay thereon the burnt-offering, and the fin-offering, and the trefpaffe-offering.

40 And at the fide without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gates which was at the porch of the gatemere two rables

41 Four tables mere on this fide, and feur tables on that fide by the fide of the gate : eight tables whereupon they flew their facrifices

42 And the four tables were of hewen flone for the burnt-offering, of a cubir and an half long, and a cubir and an half broad & one cubit high; whereupon also they laid & inftruments, wherewith they flew the burnt-offering and the facrifice.

43 And within more hooks an hand broad fastened round about and upon the table : mas the fleft of the offering

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of the fingers in the inner court, which mas at the fide of & northgate : and their profped mas toward the fouthone at the lide of the east-gate, baving the profped toward the north.

45 And he faid unto me. This chambers whose prospect is toward the fouth, is for the priefts the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prosped is toward the north, is for the prices the keepers of the charge of the alrar: thefe are the fons of Zadok among the fons of Levi, which come neer to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he meafured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad four-fguare, and the alear that mas before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this fide , and five cubits on that fide : and the breadth of the gate mas three cubits on this fide, and three cubits on that fide.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits and the breadth eleven cubits, and be brought me by the steps, whereby they went up to it, and there were pillars by on that fide.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

Frerward he brought me to the Tremple, and measured the posts, fix cubits broad on the one fide, and fix cubits broad on the other fide, which mas the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the door was five cubits on the one fide and five cubits on the other fide, and he measured the Jength thereof fourty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and meafured the post of the door two cubits, and the door fix cubits, and the breadth of the door feven cubits, twenty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits before the temple, and he faid unto me. This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the sufe-fix cubits, and the breadth of every fide-chamber, four cubits round about the house on every side.

6. And the fide-chambers mere three, one over another and thirty in orders and they entered into the wall which mas of the house for the fide-chambers round had not held in the wall of the house.

And there was an enlarging, and a winding about fill upward to the fidechambers, for the winding about of the oufe went Aill upward round about the house : therefore the breadth of the house was fill upward, and fo increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the mid(t.

B I faw alfo the height of the house round about, the foundations of the fidechambers were a full reed of fix great

10 And between the chambers was the ridenesse of twenty cubits round about the house on every fide.

II And the doors of the fide-chambers ere toward the place that was left, one door toward the north and another door toward the fouth, and the breadth of the place that was left mas five cubits round about.

. 12 Now the building that mas before the feparate place, at the end toward the mas feventy cubits broad, and the wall of the building mas five cubits thick round about; and the length thereof nineby cubits

13 So he measured the house, an hun-dred cubits long, and the separate place, and the building with the walls thereof,

14 Alfo the breadth of the face of the oufe, and of the feparate place toward the eaft, an hundred cubits

15 And he meafured the length of the wilding over against the separate place, which was behinde it: and the galleries thereof on the one fide, and on the other fide , an hundred cubits, with the inner temple and the porches of the court.

16 The door polls, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three flories over against the from the ground up to the windows, and he windows were covered.

17 To that above the doors even unto the inger house, and without and by all the wall round about within and without by mediuc.

18 And it was made with cherubims, nd palm-trees. fo that a palm-tree was erween a cheruh and a cherub and every cherub had two faces

19 So that the face of a man mat toward the paim-tree on the one fide, and

4 So he measured the length thereofy the face of a young Hontoward the palm. tree on the other fide : it was made thorow all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims, and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple

21 The posts of the temple were ferre red, and the face of the fanduary, the ap pearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood mas three cibits high, and the length thereof two cubits ; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof mere of wood : and he faid unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD.

23 And the temple and the fanduary bat two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiecestwo turning leaves two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims, and palm-trees. like as were made upon the valls, and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

CHAP. XLII. I The priests chambers : 13 Their ufe. 19 The outward court measured.

Hen he brought me forth into the utter court , the way toward the north and he brought me into the chamber that mas over against the segarate place, and which mas before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits mas the north door, and the breadth mas fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty culits which mere for the inner court and over against the pavement which was for the otter court, was gallery against gallery in three Aories.

And before the chambers mai s walk of ten cubits breadth inwards a way of one cubit, and their doors toward the north.

Now the upper chambers met morter : for the galleries were higher then thefe, then the lower, and then the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories but bad not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the baid ang was firstened more then the lowest, and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that mes without over against the chambers, towards the unter courts on the foreparts of the chambers the length thereof was fifty cubits!

8 For the length of the chambers that mere in the atter court, mas fifty cubits : and los before the temple mere an handred cubits.

II And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers, which mere toward the north , as long as they, and as broad as they and all their goings out were both according to their fathions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the fouth, mat a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the eafters one entereth into them.

13 Then faid he unto me. The north chambers, and the fouth chambers, which are before the feparate place, they be holy chambers , where the priests that apreach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things , there hal they lay the most boly things : and the meat-offering, and the fin-offering , and the trespaffe-offering : for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter thereinsthen hall they not go out of the holy place intheir garments wherein they minister : for they are holy, and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

13 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner houseshe brought me forth toward the gate, whose prospect is toward the cast, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east-fide with the reasuring reed five hundred reeds; with the measuring reed round about. 17 He meafured the north-fide, five hundred reeds, with a measuring reed round about. 18 He measured the fouth-fide , five bundred reeds with the measuring reed.

19 The turned about to the well-fide, and measured five hundred reeds , with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides : it bul a wall round about five hundred reeds long and five hundred broad , to make a feparation between the fanduary, and the profane place.

CHAP. XLIII.

The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The fin of Israel hin-Arreth Gods prefence.

A Fterward he brought me to the gates

2 And behold the glory of the God of Ifrael came from the way of the eaft : and his voice was like a noise of many waiers, and the earth thined with his glory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I faw, even according to the vision that I faw, when I tame to deftroy the city: and the visions mere like the vision that I faw by the river Chebar : and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the L o R D came into the house by the way of the gate, whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up and brought me into the inner-court, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house, of the man stood by me.

7 . ¶ And he faid unto me, Son of man, the place of my thrones& the place of the foles of my feet-where I will dwel in the midft of the children of Ifrael for every and my holy Name that the house of Ifrael no more defile acither they, nor their kings by their whoredom nor by the car-

7 Unto whom the prince of the cu-nicht gave names : for he gave unto Daniel the name of Bekeshazzar, and to Hananiah of Shadrach, and to Mithael of Methachand to Azariah of Abednego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart, that he would not defile himself with the portion of the kings meat, nor with the wine which he drank : therefore he requeffed of the prince of the eunuchs, that e might not defile himfe.f. fayour and tender love with the prince

10 And the prince of the eunuchs faid umo Danjel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat, and your drink: for why mould he fee your faces worfe liking then the children which are of your fort ? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king. the prince of the ennuchs had fet over Daniel-Hananiah-Mithael, and Azarrahs and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the kings meat : and as thou feeft, deal with thy fervants.

14 So he conferred to them in this matter, and proved them ten dayes.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they hould drink, and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge, and skill in all earning and wisdom, and Daniel had an-derstanding in all visions and dreams. 18 Now at the end of the dayes that the king had faid he should bring them inthen the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchad-nezzar.

19 And the king communed with them:

and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mithael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. 20 And in all matters of wifdom and understanding that the king enquired of them he found them ten times better then all the magicians, and aftrologers that were in all his realm.

Spirit was troubled, and his fleep brake

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the aftrologers, and the forcerers, and the Caldeans, for to thew the king his dreams : fo they came, and flood before the king.

3 And the king faid unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my fpirit was troubled to know the dream

4 Then fpake the Caldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever : tell thy fervants the dream, and we will thew the interpretation.

The king answered and said to the Caldeans. The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye flew the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye hall receive of me gifts and ewards, and great honour : therefore new me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and faid, Let the king tell his fervants the dream, and we will frew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and faid. I know of certainty that ye would gain the time. because ye see the thing is gone from me.

6 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream-there is but one decree for you : for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the tinte be changed : therefore tell me the dream, and I hall know that ye can flew me the interpretaion thereof.

10 The Caldeans answered before the king, and faid, There is not a man upon the earth that can thew the kings matter : therefore there is no king, lord, nor ru'er, that asked fuch things at any magician, or aftrologer, or Caldean

It And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can flew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with fich.
12 For this cause the king was angry.

and very furious, and commanded to deftroy all the wife men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wife men should be flain, and they fought Daniel and his fellows to be flain.

14 9 Then Daniel answered with counfel & wisdom to Arioch the captain of the kings guard, which was gone forth to flay the wife men of Babylon.

15 He answered and said to Arioch the kings captain. Why is the decree so hasly from the king? then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and defired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would flow the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house-and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mithael, and Azariah his companions :

18 That they would defire mercles of the God of heaven concerning this fecret, that Daniel and his fellows should not perift with the reft of the wife men of Babylon.

19 Then was the fecret revealed umo Daniel

Daniel in a night vision : then Daniel bleffed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and faid, Bleffed be the Name of God for ever and ever ; for wifdom and might are his :

21 And he changeth the times & the feafons : he removerh kings, and forrerh u kings: he giverh wifaom anto & wife,and knowledge to them sknow understanding things; he knoweth what is in the darkneffe, and the light dwellerh with him.

23 I thank thee, and praife thee, O thou God of my fathers, who haft given me wifdom and might , and haft made knows unto me now what we defired of thee : for thou hast now made known unto us the kings matter.

24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to defiroy the wife men of Babylon : he went and faid thus unto hims Deftroy not the wife men of Babylon : bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in hafte, and faid thus unto I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.
26 The king answered and faid to Daniel, whose name mas Beltefazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dram which I have feen, and the inter-

precation thereof

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said. The secret which the king hath demanded, cannot the wife en, the aftrologians, the magicians, the footh-favers thew unto the king :

28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth fecrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchad-nezzar what shall be in the latter dayes. Thy dream and the vifions of thy head upon thy bed, are thefe.

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy minde upon thy bed, what should come to pade hereafter; and he that revealeth fecrets, maketh known to thee what shall come to paste.

30 But as for menthis fecret is not rewealed to me for any wifdom that I have more then any living, but for their fakes that fall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know ahe thoughts of thy heart.

Thou. O king, faweft, and behold a great image : this great image, whole brightneffe was excellent, flood before thee and the form thereof masterrible

32. This images head was of fine gold-his breft and his arms of filver, his belly and his thighs of braffe:

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron, and part of clay.
34 Thou fawest till that a stone was and city and brake that mere of iron and city, and brake them to piece.

3. Then was the iron, the clay, the braffe, the filver, and the gold braken to ieces together, and became like the chaff of the fummer threshing-floors, and the was found for them ; and the flour that fmote the image became a great mount ain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream and we wil rel the interpretation thereof before the king 37 Then, O king, art a king of kings : for the God of heaven hath given thee a king dom power, and ftrength and glory.

38 And where foever the children of men dwell, the beafts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand and bath made thee ruler over them all : thou art this head of gold

39 And after thee fhall arife another kingdom inferiour to thee, and another third kingdom of braffe, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom hall be ftrong as iron : forafmuch as iron breaketh in pieces, and fubdueth all things ; and as iron that breaketh all thefe, shall it break in pieces and bruife.

41 And whereas thou faveft the feet and toes part of potters clay, and part of iron: the kingdom shall be divided but there hall be in it of the ftrength of the iron, forasmuch as thou fawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as & toes of the feet mere part of iron, and part of clay; so the kingdom hall be partly Grong, and partly broken. 43 And whereas thou fawest iron mined with miry clay-they that mingle themfelyes with the feed of men : but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay

44 And in the dayes of these kings hall the God of heaven fet up a kingdom, which mall never be destroyed: and the kingdom hal not be left to other people, but it hall break in pieces & confume all thefe kingdoms and it hal ftand for even

45 Forafmuch as thou faweit that the stone was cut out of the mountain withour hands, and that it brake in pieces the irogithe braffe, the clay the filver, and the gold: the great God hath made known to the king what fall come to paffe hereafrer, and the dream is certain; and the interpretation thereof fure, 45 Then the king Nebuchad nezzn fell upon his face and worthipped Daniels and commanded that they fhould offer as oblation, and fweet odours unto him.

47. The king answered unto Daniels and faid. Of a truth it is that your God is'a God of gods, and a Lord of kings and a revealer of fecrets, feeing then couldest reveal this fecret

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governous over all the wife men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requefted of the king and he fet Shadrach, Meihach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of ylon : but Daniel fate in the gue of the king.

19 Then was Nebuchad-nezzar full of fury, and the form of his vifage was changed against Shadrach, Methach, and Abednego: therefore he spakes and com-manded that they should heat the furnace one feven times more then it was wont to be hear.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army-to binde Sha drach, Methach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning flery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hofen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into 22 Therefore because the kings commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the Hame of the fire flew those men that took up Shadrach, Memach, and Abednego.

23 And thefe three men, Shadrach, Memach and Abednego, fell down bound into the midft of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchad-nezzar the king was aftonied, and rofe up in hafte, and fpake, and faid unto his counfellours, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and faid un-to the king. True, O king.

25 He answered and faid. Lo,I fee four men loofe, walking in the midft of the fire, and they have no hurt, and the form of the fourth is like the fon of God.

26 Then Nebuchad-nezzar came neer to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and fpake and faid, Shadrach, Mehach-& Abednego, ye fervants of & moft high God, come forth, and come hither, Then Shadrach, Mehach, and Abednego came forth of the midft of the fire. 27 And the princes, governours, and caprains and the kings counfellours, being gathered togethers faw thefe mensupon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head finged, neither

7 Then came in the magicians, the aftrologers, the Caideans, and the foothfayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 9 But at the laft Daniel came in before me, (whose name was Beltefhazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the hely gods) and before him I told the dream saying, 9 O Belteshazzarmaster of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no fecret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed : I faw, and behold, a tree in the midft of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

The tree grew, and was ftrong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the fight thereof, to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof mere fairs and the fruit thereof much, and in it was ment for all: the beafts of the field bad fradow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all fieth was fed of it.

12 I faw in the visions of my head upm my bed, and behold, a warcher, and an oly one came down from heaven. 14 He cried aloud and faid thus; Hew hown the tree, and cut off his branches, ther the beafts ger away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

18 This dream I king Nebuchad-neme have feen : now thou. O Beltefhaza: de. clare the interpretation thereof fort. much as all the wife men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto mette interpretation : but thou art able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, 19 Then Daniel (whose name na Beltefhazzar,) was aftonied for one bom and his thoughts troubled him : the king fpake and faid. Beltefhazzar- let not the dream , or the interpretation therest trouble thee, Beltefhazzar answered ad faid, My lord, the dream be to them the hate thee, and the interpretation therei to thine enemies.

CHAP. 1 Belfhazzars fea 8. 5. A hand-writing trablets the king. 10 Ar the queens commendation. Daniel is brought:

15 He interpreteth the writing. BElhazzar the king made a great feaft to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belfhazzar, whiles he tafted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and fil-ver verfels, which his father Nebuchadnexter had taken out of the temple which rain ferufaiem, that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines aight drink therein.

Then they brought the golden veffels that were taken out of the temple of the bouse of God, which was at Jerusalem, and the king and his princes, his wires and his concubines drank in them.

4 They drunk wine , and praised the gods of gold, and of filver, of braffe, of n of wood, and of flone.

f fin the fame hour came forth angers of a mans hand, and wrote over against the castleftick, upon the plaifter of the the enaliettics, upon the place, and the king sulfer part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the kings countenance was charged, & his thoughts troubled him/o that the isynts of his doins were loofed, d his knees smore one against another,

The king cried aloud to bring in the aftrologers , the Caldeans , and th foothfayers : and the king fpake and faid to the wife men of Babylon, Whofoever hall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with featlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck; and fhall be the third roler in the kingdom.

Then came in all the kings wife men , but they could not read the writing , nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belfhazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was chan ged in him and his lords were aftonied. 10 9 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquer-house, and the queen fpake and faid. O king live for ever : let not thy thoughts trouble thee , nor let thy countenance be changed.

11 There is a man in thy kingdom in whom is the fpirit of the holy geds, and in the dayes of thy father, light, and understanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods was found in him: whom the king Nebuchad-nezzar thy father, the king, I fay thy father made mafter of the magicians, aftrologers, Calde-

ans, and foothfayers,

12 Forafmuch as an excellent fpirits and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and flewing of hard fentences, and diffolving of doubts were found in the same Daniel , whom the king named Beltefhazzar : now let Daniel be called and he will few the Interpretarion.

Then was Daniel brought in before the king; and the king spake and faid unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniels which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jury ?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the fpirit of the gods is in thee, and that light, and understanding, and excellent wildom is found in thee.

15 And now the wife men the aftrologers have been brought in before me that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not fiew the in-

16 And I have heard of theesthat tho can't make interpretations, and difforve doubts : now if thou can't read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou halt be clothed with fearlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and malt be the third rue ler in the kingdom.

17 Then Dan'el answered and faid before the king . Let thy gifts be to the felf. & give thy rewards to another, yet will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation

dom, and majeffy, and glory, and honour, 19 And for the majeffy that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would, he flew, and whom he would up, and whom he would, he put down.

o But when his heart was lifted upand his minde hardened in prideshe was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

21 And he was driven from the fons of men, and his heart was made like the eafts & his dwelling was with the wilde affes: they fed him with graffe like oxen, and his body was wet with & dew of hearuled in the kingdom of menand that he appointerh over it whomfoever he will.

not humbled thine heart , though thou knewest all this :

23 But balt lifted up thy felf against the Lord of beaven, and they have brought the veffels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines have drunk wine in them and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brasse, iron, wood, and stone, which fee not, nor hear, nor know ; and the God in whose hand thy breath is and whose are all thy wayes, hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was the part of the hand fent from him, and this writing was written. 25 9 And this to the writing that was Written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL UPHARSIN.

726 This is the interpretation of the thing, MENE, God hath numbered thy kingdom, and fin: fined it.

27 TEKE Lathou art weighed in the alances, and art found wanting. 28 PERES, thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Perfians. 20 Then commanded Belfhazzar, and they clothed Daniel with fearler and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he

3 Then this Daniel was preterred a-bove the prefidents & prince-shecassie an excellent spirit was in him-and the king thought to set him over the whole realm, 4 Then the presidents and princes bught to finde occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom, but they could

Ande none occasion nor fault : forasmuch as he was faithfull-neither was there any serour or fault found in him

Then faid thefe men, We hall not de any occasion against this Daniel,

he kept alive, and whom he would, he fet except we finde it against him concern ing the law of his God

Then these presidents and princes affembled together to the king, and faid thus unto him-King Darius-live for ever,

All the prefidents of the kingdom, the gov mours and the princes the counfellours, and the captains have confulted together to chablish a royall flature, and to make a firm decree, that whofoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty dayes, fave of thee, O king, he hall be cast into the den of lions,

8 Now,O king-establish the decree and fign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and writing and the decree.

10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was figned, he went into his house, and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerufalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

II Then thefe men affembled, ad found Daniel praying, and making topplication before his God.

12 Then they came neer and fpake be fore the king concerning the kines decree, Haft thou not figned a decree that every man that shall ask a petition of asy God or man, within thirty dayes, fave of thee, O king, hall be call into the den of lions ? the king answered and faid. The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not,

Then answered they and faid before the king . That Daniel which not the captivity of the children of Judahregardeth not thee, O king, nor the decre that thou halt figned, but maketh his pe-

CHAP. VII.
Daniels vision of four beasts, 9 of Gols hingdom: 15 The interpretation thereof

I N the first veer of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and vi-Gons of his head upon his bed : then he wrote the dream, and told the fum of the matters

2 Daniel fpake & faid, I faw in my vifion by night and behold the four windes of the heaven strove upon the great fea.

3 And four great beafts came up from the fear divers one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eigles wings : I beheld till the wings thereof were pluckt, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made frand upon the feet as a man; and a mans heart was given to it

f And behold-another beaft, a fecond like to a bear : and it raifed up it felf on one fide,& is had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it and they faid thus unto it. Arife, devour much Helh.

6 After this, I beheld, and lo-another like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl, the beaft had also four heads, and dominion was given

7 After this I faw in the night visions. and behold, a fourth beaft, dreadfull and terrible; and firong exceedingly, and it had great iron teeth: it devoured, and rate in pieces, and stamped the relidue with the feet of it , and it mas divers from all the beafts that mere before its and ir had ren horns,

I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns pluckt up by the roots : and behold . in this horn mere eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 1 beheld till the thrones were caft down, and the Ancient of dayes did fits whose garment mas white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wooll ! his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery fream issued and came forth from before him : rhoutand thoufunds ministred unto him, and ten thoufand times ten thousand stood before him : the judgement was fet , and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake : I beheld even till the beaft was flain and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the reft of the beafts, they had their dominion taken away : yet their lives were prolonged for a leafon and time

13 I faw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of dayes, and they brought him neer before him.

14 And there was given him dominions and glory, & a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages should serve hims. his dominion is an everlafting dominions which hall not paffe away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. 15 ¶1 Daniel was grieved in my fpirit in the midit of my body, and the vitions of my head troubled me.

16 I came neer unto one of them that flood by , and asked him the truth of all this : fo he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things

17 These great beafts which are fourare four kings , which thail arise out of the earth. 18 But the faints of the most High hall take the kingdom, and poffeffe the kingdom for ever, even for ever & ever. 19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beaft, which was divers from all the others exceeding dreadfull, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of braffe, which devoured, brake in pieces, and flamped the relidue with his feet, 20 And of the ren horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell, even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that fpake very great things, whose look mas more flout then his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the fame horn made war with the faints, and prevailed against 22 Untill the Ancient of dayes cames and indeement was given to the faints of the most High-and the time came that the faints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he faid, The fourth beaft thalf

28 Hitherto a the end of the matter As for me-Daniel, my cogitations much broubled mes& my countenance changed in methut I kept the matter in my heart.

I Daniels vision of the ram and he goat. 13 The two thousand three bunkred dayer of facrifice.

IN the third yeer of the reign of king Bel hazzar, a vision appeared unto me, even unto me, Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the firft.

2 And I faw in a vision (and it came to paffe when I faw, that I mas at Shufron in the palace, which is in the prowince of Elam) and I faw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

Then I lifted up mine eyes, and faw, d behold there flood before the riversa ram, which had two horns, and the two horns were high:but one was higher then the other, and the higher came up laft.

4 I faw the ram pushing westward and northward, and fouthward : fo that no beatts might ftand before him, neither as there any that could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.

5 And as I was confidering behold an eost came from the well, on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground : and the goat had a notable horn etween his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two Borns, which I had feen flanding before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

And I faw him come close unto the ram , and he was moved with choler against him and smore the ram and brake is two horns and there was no power in the ram to fland before him, but he caft him down to the ground, and ftamped on him, and there was none that could deliver the ram our of his hand,

8 Therefore the he-goar waxed very horn was broken : and for it came up four orable ones toward the four windes of a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the fouth, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land

10 And it waxed greatieven to the hoft of heaven, and ir caft down forme of the holt, and of the flars to the ground, and flamped upon them.

11 Year he magnified bimfelf evento the prince of the boft, and by him the daily facrifice was taken away, and the place of his fanduary was call down. 12 And an hoft was given hom against the daily farrifice by reason of transgres from and it caft down the truth to the ground and it practifed, and profpered.

13 Then I heard one faint fpeaking and another faint faid unto that certain faint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily facrifice, and the transgreffion of defolation, to give both the fanduary and the hoft to be troden under foet ?

14 And he faid umo mes Unto two thousand and three hundred dayes : then shall the fanduary be cleanfed.

15 And it came to pafferwhen Ir eur I Daniel had feen the vision, and sought for the meaning then behold there flood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voice between the banks of Illai, which called and faid Gabriel-make this man to understand the

2 Daniel having humbled himself seeth a vision: 10 Being troubled with fear, he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third yeer of Cyrus king of Per-fia a thing was revealed unto Daniels (whose name was called Beitefhazzar)and she thing was true, but the time appointed was long, and he underftood the things and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those dayes I Daniel was mourn-ng three full weeks.

I ate no pleafant bread neither came Ceft nor wine in my mouth-neither did I anoing my felf at all , till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

And in the four and twentieth day of the first moneth, as I was by the fide of the great river, which is Hiddekel :

Then I lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold , a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz.

His body alfo was like the beryland his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to poifhed braffe, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. And I Daniel alone faw the vision ; for the men that were with me faw nor the vision : but a great quaking fell upon shem fo that they fled to hide themfelves

8 Therefore I was left alone, and faw this great vision, and there remained no Grength in me : for my comelineffe was turned in me into corruption; and I re-Bained no ftrength. Yet heard I the voice of his words:

and when I heard the voice of his words then was I in a deep fleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And behold, an hand touched me, which fer me upon my knees; and spon the palms of my hands. 11 And he faid unto me, O Daniel, 2 words that I fpeak unto thee, and frand spright : for unto thee am I now fent ; and when he had spoken this word unto 12 Then faid he unto me. Fear not, Damiel : for from the first day that thou didft fet thine heart to underfland, and to chaften thy felf before thy God , thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Perfia withstood me one and twentie dayes: but lo, Michael one of the chief princes came to help me,and I remained there with the kings of Perlia.

14 Now I am come to make thee un derstand what shall befall thy people in the latter dayes: for yet the vision is for meny dayes.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me . I fet my face toward the ground, and I became dumb

a6 And behold, one like the similitude

I opened my mouth, and fpake, and faid unto him that flood before me; 0 my lord by the vision my forrows are turned upon me and I have retained no strength, 17 For how can the fervant of this my lord talk with this my lord ! for as for me , itraightway there remained no ftrength in me, neither is there brent left in me.

18 Then there came again and touthed me one like the appearance of a many and he ftrengthened me,

19 And faid, O man greatly beloved fear not : peace be unto thee , be frenge year be firong : and when he had fpoten unto me I was firengthened and faid Let my lord speak, for thou hast strengthen.

20 Then faid he Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee ? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Perfia: and when I am gone forth-lo, the prince of Grecia hall come.

CHAP. I. Micah sheweth the wrath of God against fund for idolatry: 10 He exhapteth to mourning.

He word of the L O R D that came to Micah the Moraft-hite, in the dayes of Jotham. Ahaz, and Hezekiah kings of Judah, which he faw concening Samaria and Jerufalem. a Hear all ye people-hearken. O earth-

Gon be witneffe against you, the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For behold-the LORD cometh forth ont of his place and will come down a tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains half be molten 4 And the mountains shall be smolen moter him and the valleys shall be cieft; in was before the fire, and as the waters the are poured down a floor, the waters the are poured down a freep place.

§ For the transgression of Jacob is all this and for the fine of the house of Israeliwhat is the transgression of Jacobys it so Samuria? and what are the high placets of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samuria as sabeap of the field, and as plannings of

C HA P. 111.

1 The crusty of the princes. 5 The fulfilled of the princes. 5 The fulfilled of the property of them both.

Ned I faids Hear, I pray you. O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house I lead: is it not for you to know judgement?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil, who pluck off their fixin from of them, & their fich from off their hones

2 Who also eat the fleft of my people, and flay their fkin from off them , and they break their bones, and chop them in piecessas for the potsand as flefh within the cauldro

4 Then fall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them : he will even they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 Thus faith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people erres that bite with their reeth and cry Peace : and he that putterh not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him :

6 Therefore night shalbe unto you that ye hall not have a vision and it hall be we hall not have a vition, and it hall be dark unto you, that ye hall not divine, and the fun hall go down over the pro-phets, and the day halbe dark over them. Then shall the feers be assamed, and the diviners confounded : year they shall all cover their lips, for there is no anfwer of God.

8 9 But truly I am full of power by the fpirit of the L O R D, and of judge nent and of might to declare unto Jacob his tranfgreffion, and to Ifrael his fin.

Hear this I pray you ye heads of the house of Jacobs and princes of the house of Israels that abbot sudgements and perverral equity.

10 They build up Zion with bloods and Jerufalem with iniquity.

1 The heads thereof judge for rewards and the priefly thereof teach for hires and the property they of divine for money. the prophets thereof divine for money : yet will they less upon the LORD, and fay, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us

12 Therefore hall Zion for your fake be plowed as a field, and Jerufalem shall ecome heaps, and the mountain of the oufe, as the high places of the forett.

1 The glory, 3 peace, 8 kingdom, 11 and wittery of the church.

Bur in the last dayes it shall come to boufe of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it fall be exalted above the hills, and people fall flow nato it.

2 And many nations stall come, and fry Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his wayes, and we will walk in his paths : for the law hall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lostofrom Jenifslem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people and rebuse (trong nations afar off; and they shall beat their (words into

4 But they shall fit every man under his vincound under his fig-tree, and none shall make them afraid : for the mouth of the LORD of boils hath fpoken if.

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his godsand we will walk in the Name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, faith the LORD, will I affemble ber that halteth and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflifted.

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant ; and her that was cast far off, a ftrong nation ; and the LORD fhall reign over them in mount Zion: from hences forth even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower of the flocks the firong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee fall it comes even the firt dominion the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerufalem.

Now why does thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee ? is thy counfel-lour perished ? for pangs have taken thee,

10Re in pain and labour to bring ferth O daughter of Zionslike a woman in trawell : for now halt thou go forth out of the city,and thou thalt dwell in the field, and thou fhalt go even to Babylon: there halt thou be delivered : there the LORD thall redcem thee from the hand of thine enemies

11 9 Now also many nations are gathered againft thee, that fay, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsell : for he hall gather them as the theaves into the floor.

13 Arise, and thresh, O daughter of Zion : for I will make thine horn iron and I will make thy hoofs braffe and they halt beat in pieces many people : and I wil confecrate their gain unto the LORDs and their fubftance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets saying. I wil open my mouth in parables. I will uter things which have been kept fecret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jefus fent the multitude away, and went into the house; and his disciples came unco him; faying; Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and faid unto them. He that soweth the good feed, is the Son of man:

39 The enemy that fowed them is the devil: the harvest is the end of the world and the respers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burnt in the fire: so shall it be in the end of the world.

48 The Son of man shall fend forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall call them into a surnace of fire; there shall be waiting and gnash.

good grounds is he that heareth the words of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashsti understander hit, which also beareth ing of teeth. Suiting the forth-some as hundred 4. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the furnin the kingdom of their Fasher, Who hath ears to hearstethin hear. ... 44. ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto creature hid in a fields the which when a man hath founds he iddeth, and, for joy shercoft, porth and felleth all that he hash, and bayeth that field.

45. ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, feeking goodly pearly:

I Jefus is brought bound and accused before Pilate. 15 Upon the clameur of the people, Barabbas is loofed, and Je-Jus delivered to be crucified : 19 He sa abused: 43 Bus honourably buried.

A Nd straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and fcribes and the whole councell , and bound Jefus , and carried him away and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him Art thou the king of the Jews ? And he answeringsfaid unto him, Thou fayeft it. 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things : but he answered nothing. 4 And Pilate afked him again faying.

Answerest thou nothing? Beholds how many things they witnesse against thee. But Jefus yet answered nothing, fo that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now ar that feast he released unte them one prisoner-whomsoever they defired 7 And there was one; named Barabbas; which lay bound with them that has infurrection with him, who had committed murder in the infurredion. 8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to defire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, faying Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews ? 10 ( For he knew that the chief priefts had delivered him for envie.)

11 Bur the chief priefts moved the people, that he should rather releafe Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and faid again unto them. What will ye then that I half do unto him whom ye call the king of the lews.?

13 And they cried our again, Crucifie

14 Then Pilate faid unto them, Why what evil bath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucifie him.

15 And fo Pilate, willing to content the people-releafed Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jefus, when he had fcourged him, to be crucifed.

16 And the fouldiers led him away into she hall called Pretorium, and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purples and platted a crown of thorns, and pur ir about his head;

18 And began to falute him, Haily king of the Jews.

19 And they fmote him on the head with a reed, and did fpit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him. 20 And when they had mocked him they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucife him.

21 And they compell one Simon 2 Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the countrey, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his crosse.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being inserpreted, the place of a fault,

1 Christs resurrection declared to three momen: 9 He bimfely appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 12 to two going into the countrey, 14 then to the apo-files, 15 whom he fendeth to preach 29 and afcendeth into heaven.

A Nd when the fabbath was path, Ma-ry Magdalene, and Mary the mo-ther of James, and Salome, had bought. fweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the fepulchre, at the rifing of the fun : And they faid among thensfelves

Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the fepulchre ! ( And when they looked, they faw that the stone was rolled away ) for it was very great.

5. And entering into the fepulchresher faw a young man fitting on the right fide, clothed in a long white garment, and they were affrighted.

And he faith unto there , Be not affrighted, ye feek Jefus of Nazareth, which was crucified, he is rifen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid him. But go your ways tell his discipless and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee, there hall ye fee himas he faid unto you.

8 And they went out quickly and find from the fepulchre , for they trembled, and were amazed, neither faid they any thing to any man-for they were afraid.

9 Thow when Jeftes was rifen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast feven devils.

10 And the went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

II And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been feen of hers beleeved not.

12 ¶ Afrer that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the countrey.

13 And they went and told it unto the refidue, neither beleeved they them.

14 Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they far at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardnesse of heart, because they beleeved not them which had feen him after he was rifen.

And be faid unto them. Go ve into all the world', and preach the goipel to every creature. mail be faved, but he that beleeveth asts hall be damned.

Orasmuck as many have taken in hand to let forth in order a declarason of those things which are most furely beleeved among us-

2 Even as they delivered them unto us which from the beginning were eyewinceles and minifters of the word :

It feemed good to me alfo, having had perfest understanding of all things from the very first to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus, 4 That thou mightest know the cerminty of those things wherein thou haft been inftrufted.

Here was in the dayes of Herod the king of Judea, a certain prieft mammed Zacharias, of the coarfe of Alvia, and his wife was of the daughters of Aaren, and ber name was Elizaberh. 6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameleffe. 7 And they had no childe because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well Aricken in yeers, 8 And it came to paffe, that while he executed the priefts office before God in the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of 5 priests he went into the temple of the Lord; 10 And the whole multitude of the cople were praying without at the time of incense. 11 And there appeared unto him an ugel of the Lord, standing on the right file of the altar of incense. 12 And when Zacharias faw birm , he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel faid unto him, Fear not, Tacharias, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth hall bear thee a fon and thou hak call his name John.

14 And thou thair have joy and gladnes, and many thall rejoyce at his birth : 15 For he hall be great in the fight of the Lord, and firall drink neither wine nor fireng drink, and he shall be filled with the holy Ghoft, even from his mothers womb

16 And many of the children of Ifrael half he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he hall go before him in the fpirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the justs to make ready a people prepared for the

1 The parable of the unjust steward.

14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisic of the Pharistes. 19 The rich glusson and Lazarus the begger. A There was a certain rich man which had a fleward, and the fame was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called himsand faid unto hims How is it that I hear this of thee ! give an account of thy flewardfhip : for thou mayeft be no longer fleward.

Then the fleward faid within himfelf. What shall I do for my lord taketh sway from me the flewardfhip ! I cannot dig to beg I am afhamed.

4 I am refolved what to do, that when I am put out of the flewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lords debrours unto him. & faid unto the first How much owest thou unto my lord ? 6 And he faid. An hundred measures of And he faid unto him, Take thy bill, and fit down quickly and write fifty

Then faid he to anothers And how much owest shou? And he faid, An hun-dred measures of wheat, And he faid unto him. Take thy bill, and write fourfcore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust fleward, because he had done wisely : for the children of this world are in their generation wifer then & children of light.

9 And I fay unto your Make to your felves friends of & mammon of unrightcournes that when ye fails they may receive you into everlatting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in that which is leaft, is faithfull alfo in much : and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in

II If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithfull in that which is another mans, who hall give you that which is your own?

13 9 No fervant can ferve two maflers, for either he will have the one, and love the other : or effe he will hold to the one-and defotte the other : ye cannot ferve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharifees affer who were coverous-heard all thefe things: and they derided him.

15 And he faid unto them. Ye are they ich juftiffe your felves before mea-bar God knoweth your hearts for that which is highly effeemed antongst men, is abomination in the fight of God.

16 The law and the prophets mere un-God is preached, and every man preffeth into ir.

17 And it is eafler for heaven & earth to paffe, then one title of the law to fail. 18 Whofoever puttern away his wife; and marrieth another, committee hadul tery; and whofoever marrieth her that is put away from her bufband, committethadultery.

19 There was a certain rich many which was clothed in purple and fine li-

20 And there was a certain begger, naned Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of feres :

21 And defiring to be fed with the crums which fell from the rich mans table : moreover, the dogs came and licked

22 And it came to paffe that the beger died, and was carried by the ange into Abrahams bofom : the rich man alfo died, and was buried. 23 And in hell he lift up his eyes being in torments, and feeth Abraham afar offe and Lazarus in his bosom :

24 And he cried and faid Father Abraham-have mercy on me, and fend Lazzrus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham faid, Son, remember that thou in thy life time received thy good things, and likewife Lazarus evi things: but now he is comforted, and thou are tormented.

26 And besides all this, berween un a you there is a great gulf fixed, fo that they which would passe from hence to you, cannot, neither can they paffe to us that would come from thence:

27 Then he faid, I pray thee therefores father, that theu wouldeft fend him to my fathers house :

28 For I have five brethrenithat he may teff iffe unto them left they also come into this place of torment. 29 Abraham faith unto him, They have Mofes and the prophers, let them heat

30 And he faid, Nay, father Abraham : but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent 31 And he faid unto him, If they here not Moles and the prophets neither will they be perfuaded though one role from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

1 To avoid offences. 3 One to forgive an-other. 6 The power of faith. 11 Ten lepers healed, 22 Of the kingdom of God and of Christ.

Hen faid he unto the difciples, Re is impossible but that offices will come but we unto him through whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a milfloge were hanged about his neek and h caft into the fear then thut he mould offend one of thefe little ones,

3 Take heed to your felves : if thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuile him, and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trefpaffe againft thee feven times in a day, and feven times in & day turn again to thee, faying, I repent : thou fait corgive him.

When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharifees had heard that Jefus made and baptized moe disciples then John (Though Jefus himfelf baptized not but his disciples) 3 He left Judea, and departed again

no Galilee. 4 And he must needs go thorow $2-

Then cometh he to a city of Samathe which is called Sychar, neer to the percell of ground, that Jacob gave to his a lofeph.

6 Now Jacobs well was there. Jefus merefore being wearied with his journey, fare thus on the well; and it was about the fixt hour.

There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water : Jefus faith unto her Give me to drink.

8 For his difciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat. 9 Then faith the woman of Samaria anto him. How is it, that thou being a Jew, afkest drink of me, which am a woan of Samaria ? For the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritan to Jefus answered and faid unto here If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that faith to thee. Give me to drink. thou wouldeft have afked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

II The woman faith unto him, Sir, then haft nothing to draw with, and the well is deep : from whence then haft

thou that living water ? 12 Art thou greater then our father lacob which gave us the well, and drank thereof himfelf, and his children, and his eattell a 13 Jefus anfwered and faid unto her-

Phofoever drinketh of this water, hall thirft again :

14 But whofeever drinketh of the sucr that I fall give him, shall never thirst : but the water that I shall give him, hall be in him a well of water, fpringing up into everlafting life.

15 The woman faith unto him. Bir. give me this watersthat I thirft not snei-ther come hither to draw. 16 lefus faith unto hers Gos call thy band and come hither.

17 The woman answered and faid, I have no husband. Jesus faid ento her, Thou hask well faid, I have no husband: and :

18 For thou haft had five husbands and he whom thou now halls is not the hulband : in that faids thou truly.

19 The woman faith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worthipped in this mountainsand ye faysthat in Jerufalem is the place where men ought to worthip.

22 Ye worthip ye know not what : we know what we worthip : for falvation is of the Jews

23 But the hour cometh and now iswhen the true worthippers thall worthip the Father in fpirit, and in truth : for the Father feekerh fuch to worfhip him. 24 God is a Spirit, and they that worthip him-must worthip bim in spirits and in truth. 25 The woman faith unto him. I know that Messias cometh, which is called

Christ : when he is come, he will tell us all things. 26 Jefus faith unto her, I that fpeak unto thee, am he.

27 TAnd upon this came his disciples and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet, no man faid, What feekeft thousor, Why talkeft thou with her?

28The woman then left her water-potand went her way into the city and faith to the men-29 Come, fee a man which told me all things that ever I did : is not this the Christ ? 30 Then they went out of the ciry and came unto him. 31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him-faying, Master-ear. 32 Bur he faid unro them, I have ment to eat that we know not of. 33 Therefore faid the difciples one to another . Hath any man brought him ought to eat ?

34 Jesus faith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that fent me and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four hold, I fay unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields : for they are white already to harvest.

26 And he that respeth s receiveth wages and gathereth fruit unto life ever-nall: that both he that fewerh, and he

CHAP, VIII.

* Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery: 12 he preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doffrine.

JEMs went unto the mount of olives a And carly in the morning he came again into the temples and all the people came unto hims and he face down and taught them.

3 And the feribes & Pharifees brought anto him a woman taken in adultery and when they had fet her in the mids,

4 They faid unto him, Mafter, this woman was taken in adultery, in the ve-

5 Now Mofes in the law commanded us, that fuch fhould be stoned; but what fayest thou?

6 This they faid, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus Rooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking himhe lift up himfelf, and faid unto them. He that is without fin among you, let him ford cast a score at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it being conwided by their own confeience went out one by one; beginning at the cldeft, even ento the laft; and Jefus was left alone; and the woman flanding in the midft.

40 When Jefus had lift up himfelf and faw none but the woman he faid unto her. Woman, where are those thine accusers?

bath no man condemned thee ! 11 She faid, No man, Lord. And Jefus faid unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: Go and fin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them saying I am the light of the world:

he that followeth me, shall not walk in darknesse, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto shim. Thou bearest record of thy fells, the

him. Thou beareft record of thy felf, the record is not true. 14 Jefus answered and faid unto them.

Though I bear record of my felf, yet my record is true: for I know whence I same, and whither I go: but ye cannot sell whence I come, and whither I go..

15 Ye judge after the flefth I judge no min.

16 And yet if I judge, my indgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that fent me.

37 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witnesse of my felf, and the Father that sent me, beareth witnesse of me, 19 Then faid they unto him. Where is thy Father? Jefus answered. Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye hould have known my Father aifo.

20 These words spake Jesus in the greatury, as he thught in the temple, and no man laid hands on him, for his hour was not yet come.

I go my way, and ye shall feek me, and shall die in year fins : whither I go, ye ye cannot come.

23 And he faid unto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above : ye are of this world. I am not of this world:

2.4 I faid therefore unto you, that ye hall die in your fins: for if ye beleeve not that I am heye hall die in your fins.

25 Then faid they unto him. Who are thou? And Jefus faith unto them. Even the fame that I faid unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to fay, and to judge of you: but he that fent me, is true, and I fpeak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They underflood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28. Then faid Jefus unto them, When ye have lift up the Son of man, then mul ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my felf: but as my Father bub taught me. I fpeak thefe things.

29 And he that fent me, is with me; the Father hath not left me alone: for I do alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake those words, many be-

33 ¶ They answered him. We be Abrahams seed, and were never in bondage to any mane how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jefus answered them. Verily verily I say unto you. Whosoever committed

fin. is the fervant of fin.

35' And the fervant abideth not in the house for ever; but the Son abideth ere.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

27 I know that ye are Abrahams seeds but ye seek to kill me, because my word bath on class in you.

38 I spent that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have feen with your father.

39 They answered and faid unto him Abraham is our father. Jesus fath unto them: If ye were Abrahams children ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye feek to kill me, a am that hath told you the truth which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father.
Then faid they to him. We be not lors of fornication, we have one father, even 42 Jefus faid unto them. If God were your father-ye would love me for I proceeded forth, and came from God: not ther came I of my felf, but he fent me.

43 Why do ye not understand an speech? even because ye cannot bear my word.

44 Ye are of your father the devilored the infts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning. and abode not in the truth because there is he fpeaketh of his own : for he is a liar, and washed, and came feeing. and the father of it.

C HAP. IX.

A man that was born blinde is reftorel to fight: 8 He is brought to the Pharifees: 13 They are offended at it. and excommunicate him: 35 But be is received of Jefius A Nd as Jefus paffed by he faw a man which was blinde from his birth. And his disciples asked him-faying, Mafter, who did fin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blinde 3 Jefus answered , Neither harh this wan finned nor his parents : but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the works of him that feat me, while it is day : the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. 6 When he had thus spokenshe spat on the ground and made clay of the spittles and he anointed the eyes of the blinde man with the clay. 7 And faid unto him, Go wash in the pool of Siloam, ( which is by interpreta-no truth in him. When he fpeaketh a lie, tion. Sent. ) He went his way therefore.

8 The neighbours therefore, and 45 And because I tell you the truthing they which before had seen him that he was blinde, faid , Is not this he that fac and begged !

9 Some faid. This is he : others faid, He is like him : but he faid, I am he,

10 Therefore faid they unto him How were thine eyes opened

11 He answered and faid, A man that is calle's Jeius, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and faid unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash a and I went and waffied, and I received fight. 12 Then faid they unto him Where is he i he faid I know hor. 13 They brought to the Pharifees him that aforetime was blinde. 14 And it was the fabbath-day when Jefus made the clay and opened his eyes. 15 Then again the Pharifees also asked him how he had received his fight. He. faid unto them . He put clay upon mino eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore faid fome of the Phart-fees. This man is not of God-because he keepeth nor the fabbath-day. Others faids How can a man that is a finner do fuch miracles? and there was a division among them.

17 They fay unto the blinde man agains What fayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He faid, He is a prophet.

Bur the Jews did not beleeve comcerning him, that he had been blindes and received his fight-untill they called the parents of him that had received his fight

19 And they asked them faying. Is this how then doth he now fee ?

20 His parents answered them and faid, We know that this is our fon and that he was born blinde:

21 But by what means he now feethwe know not, or who hath opened his eyess we know not : he is of age, ask him, he hall fpeak for himfelf.

22 Thef: words spake his parents, because they seared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confesse that he was Christ, he should be put out of the fynagogue.

23 Therefore faid his parents, He is of age, ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blinde, and faid unro him, Give God the praise, we know that this man is a finner.

25 He answered and faid, Whether he be a finner or no. I know not : one thing I know, that whereas I was blinde, now I fee.

26 Then faid they to him again, What did he to thee ? how opened he thing cyes !

27 He answered them. I have rold you aiready, and ye did not hear : wherefore would you hear it again? will ye also be his disciples ?

28 Then they reviled him . and faid, Thou art his disciple, but we are Moke disciples.

29 We know that God fpake unto Mofes : as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and faid unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not finners ; but if any man be a worthipper of God and doth his will-him he hearech.

32 Since the world began was it not beard , that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blinde :

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and faid unto him, Thou wall altogether born in fins & doeft thou teach us? And they caft him out.

35 Jefus heard that they had cast him out : and when he had found him he faid unto him, Doeft thou believe on the Son of God ?

40 And went away again beyond lordan , into the place where John at first

laptized : and there he abode 41 And many reforted unto him, and hid, lohn did no miracle : but all things that John fpake of this man-were true. 42 And many beleeved on him there. C H A P. XI.

1 Lazarus raifed. 45 Many Jems he-leeve. 47 The high priests and Pharifees gather a councell against Christ.

Ow a certain man was fick named Mary and her fifter Martha.

3 Therefore his fifter fent unto him. fiving, Lord, behold, he whom thou loveft is fick. 4 When leftis heard that he faid. This ficineffe is not unto death, but for the glory of God : that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

Now lefus loved Martha, and her fifter and Lazarus. 6 When he had heard therefore that bewas fick , he abode two dayes ftill in the same place where he was, Then after that faith he to his dikiples. Let us go into Judea again. 8 His disciples fay unto him, Mafterthe lews of late fought to ftone thee, and goeft thou thither again ! 9 Jefus answered Are there not twelve hours in the day ? if any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not , because he seeth the light of this world. to But if a man walk in the night, he flumbleth, because there is no light in It Thefe things faid he, and after that be faith unto then , Our friend Lazarus fleepeth but I go that I may awake him out of fleep. 12 Then faid his disciples, Lord if he

30 Now I fus was not yet come into the town : but was in that place where Martha met, him

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they faw Mary, that the role up haftily, and went out followed her, faying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there

32 Then when Mary was come where Jefus was, and faw him. the fell down at his feet, faying unto him, Lord, if thou hadft been here-my brother had not died. 33 When Jesus therefore faw her weeping and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he grouned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 And faid Where have ye laid him ?

They fay unto him, Lord, come and fee,

35 lefus wept. 36 Then faid the Jews, Behold, how he loved him!

37 And fome of them faid. Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blinde, have caused that even this man fhould not have died?

38 Jefus therefore again groining in himfelf, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a flone lay upon it.

39 Jefus faid. Take ye away the flones Martha, the fifter of him that was dead, faith unto him , Lord, by this time he flinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jefus faith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest beleeves thou houldest fee the glory of God? 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jefus lift up his eyes, and faid, Father, I thank thee that thou hatt heard me 42 And I knew that thou hearest me alwayes : but because of the people which fland by. I faid it, that they may believe that thou haft fent m

43 And when he thus had fpoken , he cried with a loud voice , Lazarus, come

44 And he that was dead come forthbound hand and foor with grave-clothes, and his face was bound about with a nap-Jefus faith unto them, Leofe him, kin. and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary , and had feen the things which Jefus did, beleeved on him

48 But fome of them went their wayes to the Pharifees, and told them what things 'efus had done Then gathered the chief priefts and the Pharifees a councel-& faid-What do we? for this man doth many miracles. 48 If we let him thus alone . all men will beleeve on him, and the Romanes sall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same yeer, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor confider that it is expedient for mes that one man hould die for the peoplesand that the whole nation periff not. $1 And this fpake he not of himfelf : but being high prieft that yeer-heprophe-fied that Jefus mould die for that nation:

52 And not for that nation onely, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were fest-sered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsell together for to put him to death

54 Jefus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews : but went thence unto a countrey neer to the wilderneffe, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his difciples.

ss And the Jews paffcover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the counarey up to jerufziem before the paffeover to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and fpake among themselves , as they stood n the temple . What think ye , that he will not come to the feat!

$7 Now both the chief priests and the Pharifees had given a commandments that if any man knew where he were, he Gould few it that they might take him.

28 Father, glorific thy Name, Then came there a voice from heaven, faring, I have both glorified it and will glorifie it again 29 The people therefore that flood by-and heard it , faid that it thundered : others faid. An angel fpake to him.

30 Jefus answered and faid. This voice came not because of me, but for your faker.

31 Now is the Judgement of this world : now shall the prince of this world be caft our.

32 And I. if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 (This he faid-fignifying what death be fhould die.)

34 The people answered him. We have for ever : and how fayeft thou, The Son of man must be lift up ? who is this Son

35 Then Jefus faid unto them . Yer a little while is the light with you ; walk while ye have the light , left darkneffe come upon you : for he that walketh in darkneffe-knoweth not whither he goeth. 36 While ye have light beleeve in the fight that we maybe the children of light.

These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them. 37 9 But though he had done fo many miricles before them, yet they beleeved por on him : 38 That the faying of Efairs the proher might be fulfilled, which he fpake,

Lord , who hath beleeved our report ? and to whom bath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not beleeves because that Efairs faid again.

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and herdened their heart that they fhould not fee with their eyes, nor underftand with their heart, and be converted, and I hould heal them. 41 Thefe things faid Efaiss, when he hwhis glory- and spake of him. 42 Neverthelede, among the chief rulers also many beleeved on him; but because of the Pharifees . they did not confesse him, left they should be put out of the fynagogue : 43 For they loved the praise of men, more then the praise of God. 44 I Jefus cried and faid, He that beleeveth on me, beleeveth not on me, bar on him that fent me. 45 And he that feeth me , feeth him that fent me. 46 I am come a light into the world, that who oever beleeveth on me, fhould not abide in darkneffe. 47 And if any man hear my words, and beleeve not. I judge him not : for I came not to judge the world, but to fave the world. 48 He that rejedeth me-and receiveth not my words , hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have fpoken, the fame shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of my self; but the Father which sent me, he gave no a commandment what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlafting ; whatfoever I fpe4k therefore, even as the Father faid unto me, fo I fp eak.

1 Jesus mashing the disciples feet exhorteth to humility and charity: 18 He foretelleth that Judas shall begray him. Peters denial.

Ow before the feast of the passeo-ver, when Jesus knew that his hour was come, that he fould depart out of this world unto the Father having loved his own which were in the world, he laved them unto the end.

2 And Supper being ended. ( the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons fon, to betray him )
3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God & went to God :

4 He rifeth from supper, and laid afide his garments, and took a towell, and girded himfelf.

After that, he poureth water into a bafin, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

Then cometh he to Simon Peter : and Peter faith unto him , Lord, doeft thou wath my feet !

Jetus answered and faid unto him What I do thou knowest not now : but thou fhalt know hereafter.

8 Peter faith unto him . Thou halt never wash my feet. Jefus answered birn ; If I wash thee not , thou had no part with me.

2 And Judas also which betrayed hims knew the place : for Jefus oft-times refoned thither with his disciples. 3 Judas then having received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests and Pharifees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons. 4 Jefus therefore, knowing all things that hould come upon him, went forth, and faid unto them. Whom feek ye !

They answered him, Jesus of Nazamh. Jefus faith unto them I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him , flood with them.

6 Affoon then as he had faid unto them. I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground

7 Then asked he them again . Whom feek ye! And they faid-Jefus of Nazareth. 8 Jefus answered, I have told you that I am he : if therefore ye feek medet thefe go their way :

25 And Simon Peter flood and warmed himfelf : they faid therefore unto him; Art not thou also one of his disciples ?

He denied it and faid I am not. 26 One of the fervants of the high prieft ( being his kinfman whose ear Peter cut off,) faith, Did not I fee thee in the garden with him ?

27 Peter then denied again, and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Jefus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgement & it was carly, and they themselves went not into the judgement hal-left they fhould be defiled: but that they might ear the paffeover.

29 Pilate then went out uaco themand. faid, What accufation bring you against this man !

30 They answered and faid unto him; If he were not a malefactour, we would: not have delivered him up unto thee

31 Then faid Pilate unto them. Take ye him, and judge him according to, your law. The lews therefore faid unto him . It is not lawfull for us to put any.

3 And faid, Hail, king of the Jews: and they fmote him with their hands.

Pilate therefore went forth again, and faith unto them Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I finde no fault in him.

Then came Jefus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe: and Pilate faith unto them. Behold the man.

6 When the chief priefts therefore and officers faw him, they cried out, faying) Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate faith moto them. Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die becaufe he made himfelf the Son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that faying he was the more atraid,

And went again into the judgement And went again unto lefus. Whence art thou? But lefus gave him no answer.

10 Then faith Pilare unto him Speakeft thou not unto me ! knowest thou not that I have power to crucifie thee , and have power to release thee ?

11 Jefus answered, Thou coulded have no power at all against mesexcept it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee, bath the greater

TTHE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAP. 1 A repetition of part of Christs bistory after his passion: 9 Of his ascention, apostles giving themselves prayer . the place of Jadas.

former treatife have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach.

2 Untill the day in which he was taken up, after that he through ments unto the apostles, whom he had chosen

To whom also he sewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them fourty dayers and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: 4 And being affembled together with them-commanded them that they should not depart from Jerufalem, but wait for the promife of the Father, which faith her ye have heard of me.

5 For John truly baptized with water but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghoft not many dayes hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, faying, Lord wilt thou at this time reftore again the kingdom to Ifrael ? And he faid unto them. It is not for you to know the times or $feafons which the Father hath put in his own power. 8 But ye shall receive power, after that the hely Ghoth is come upon your and ye hall be witneffes unto me, both in Jerufalemand in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermoft part of the earth. 9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their fight.

10 And while they looked ftedfally toward heaven as he went up, beholds two men flood by them in white apparells 11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why fland ye gazing up into heaven? this fame Jefus, which is taken up from you into heaven-shall fo come in like manner as ye have feen him go into heaven. iz Then returned they unto Jerufalem from the mount, called Olivet, which is from ferufalem a fabbath-dayes journey. 13 And when they were come in-the reat up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the fon of Alpheus, and Simon Zeletes and Judas the brother

These all continued with one accord in prayer and fupplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jefus, and with his brethren. 15 9 And in those daves Peter flood up in the mids of the disciples, and said, the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty) 16 Men and brethren, this feripture must need; have been fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jefus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministery. 18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling headlong, he burst assumer in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, insomuch as that field is called, in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to fay, the field of blood

20 For it is written in the book of and let no man dwell therein: and his rick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jefus went in and out among us-22 Beginning from § baptisme of Johns areo that same day that he was taken up frem us, must one be ordained to be a witnesse with us of his refurredion 23 And they appointed two Joseph called Barfabas, who was firnamed Juffus, and Marthias.

24 And they prayed, and faid, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, they who; her of thefe two thou haft cholem

25 That he may take part of this miniftery and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots, and the let fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles,

1 The apostles filled with the holy Chosts and Speaking divers languages, are admired by some and derided by others. 37 Peter laptizeth a great number that were converted.

Nd when the day of Pentecoft was A fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2 And fuddenly there came a found from heaven , as of a rushing mighty winde, and it filled all the house where they were fitting. And there appeared unto them clo-ven tongues, like as of fire, and it fat upon each of them. 4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tonguesas & fpirit gave them utterance.

And there were dwelling at Jerufalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven

6 Now when this was noised abroads the multitude came together, and were confounded because that every man heard them fpeak in his own language.

And they were all amazed and marvelled, faying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galileans ?

8 And how hear we every man in our wn tongue, wherein we were born ?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamires and the dwellers in Melopotamia and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya, about Cyrene, and frangers of Rome, Jews and profelytes,

11 Cretes, and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderfull works of God. 12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, faying one to another, What meaneth this ! 13 Others mocking, faid, Thefe men

14 9 But Peter standing up with the eleven, lift up his voice, and faid unco them, Ye men of ludea, and all ye that dwell at Jerufalem, be this known unto. you and hearken to my words :

15 For thefe are not drunken , as yes fuppole, feeing it is but the third hour

37 T Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and faid unro Perers and to the reft of the apostles,

Men and brethren, what shall we do?
38 Then Peter faid unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Jesus Chaift, for the remission of fine, and ye hall receive the gift of the holy Ghoft.

39 For the promise is unto you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, ven as many as $ Lord our God hal tall

40 And with many other words did e teftifier and exhort, faying, Save your River from this untoward generation, 41 Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized : and the fame day there were added unto them about three thousand fouls.

42 And they continued fledfafily in the spoftles doftring and fellowfhip and in breaking of bread, and in prayers

43 And fear came upon every foul; and many wonders and fignes were done by the apostles.

44 And all that beleeved were together, and had all things common

45 And fold their poffessions and goods , and parted them to all men as every man had need.

46 And they continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did ear their meat with gladnesse, and singlenesse of heart, 47 Praifing God, and having favour with with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily fuch as should be faved.

3 But Peter faid. Ananias why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the holy Ghoft and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own ? and after it was foldswas it not in thine own power? why last thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not fied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell down and gave up the ghost; and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arofe woond him up and carried him out, and buried him, 7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much.

And the said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter faid unto her Mow is it bat ye have agreed together to tempt

10 Then fell the down ftraightway at his feet, and yeelded up the ghost; and the yeang men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the aposites were many fignes and wonders wrought among the people (And they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the rest durit no man joyn himself to them; but the people magnified them.

14 And beleevers were the more added to the Lord-multitudes both of men and women)

15 Infomuch that they brought forth the fick into the fireets and laid them on beds, and couches, that at the leaft the hadow of Peter pathing by, might overfluid with the fire them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about noto Jerusalem bringing sick folks-and them which were wered with unclean spirits and they were bealed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the seed the Sadduces) and were filled with indignation.

18 And laid their hands on the apollen and put them in the common prifon.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and faid,

29 Then Peter, and the other apo-files answered and faid, We ought to obey God rather then men.

30 The God of our fathers raifed up

Jefus, whom ye flew, & hanged on a tree : 31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Ifrael, and forgiveneile of fins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things & fo is also the holy Ghost whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 When they heard that, they were ent to the heart , and took counfell to flav rhèm.

34 Then flood there up one in the councell, a Pharifee, named Gamaliel, a dodour of law-had in reputation among all the people , and commanded to gat the apolities forth a little fpaces

35 And faid unto them , Ye men of Ifrael, take heed to your felves, what ye intend to do as touching thefe men :

36 For before thefe dayes rose up Theudas, boafting himfelf to be fomebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred joyned themselves : who was flain and all as many as obeyed him, were feartered, and brought to sought

37 After this man rofe up Judas of Galilee, in the dayes of the taxing, and drew away much people after him : he also perimed, and allo even as many as obeyed him, were difperfed.

38 And now I fay unto you . Refrain from these men, and let them alone : for if this counfell, or this work be of men, a will come to nought :

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it . left haply ye be found even to 7 And the word of God increased and the number of the difciples multiplied in Jerufalem greatly, & a great company of the pricits were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles

among the people.

9 Then there arose cortain of the fynagogue which is called the fynagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians and of them of Cilicia, and of Afia disputing with Stephen:

10 And they were not able to relift the wifdom & the fpirit by which he fpake. II Then they suborned men-which faid-

We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God. 12 And they ftirred up the people and the elders, and the feribes, and came upon him and caught him and brought him to the councell:

13 And fet up falfe witneffes . which faid. This man ceafeth not to fpeak blafphemous words against this holy place, with God. 12 For as many as have finned with-out law, fiall allo periff without law; and as many as have finned in the law, fiall be judged by the law.

For not the hearers of the law, are

Juft before God, but the doers of the law mall be juftified ;

14 For when the Gentlles which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law : thefe , having not she law are a law unto themfelves

15 Which few the work of the written in their hearts, their confeience alfo bearing witnede, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else exculing one another :

16 In the day when God hall judge-the fecrets of men by Jefus Chrift , according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and refleft in the law, and makeft thy boaft of God: 18 And knowest his will-and approvest the things that are more excellent, being inftrutted our of the laws 19 And art confident that thou thy felf art a guide of the blinde , a light of them which are in darkneffe : An inftructer of the foolifha teacher of babes : which haft & form of know-

23 Thou that makeft thy boaft of the aw,through breaking the law,difhonour-

eft thou God ? 24 For the Name of God is blafphened among the Gentiles, through you, as it is written : 25 For circumcifion verily profiteris If thou keep the law s but if thou be a reaker of the law , thy circumcifion is de uncircumcifion :

25 Therefore , if the uncircumcifion heep the righteouincife of the law. fail not his uncircumcifion be counted for reumetion ?

27 And hall not uncircumcifion which is by nature, if it fulfill the law, judge thee who by the letter and circumcifio doest transgresse the law?

28 For he is not a lew, which is on outwardly, neither is that circumcifion which is outward in the fleft : 29 But he is a Jew, which is one in wardly, and circumcifion is that of the heart, in the fpirit, and not in the letter whose praise is not of men but of God. C H A P. III. The fews prerogative: 9 Tet the la nceth them also of fin , 20 Nom justified by the laws but all by faith.

Wat advantage then hath the len! or what profit is there of circus. cifion ?

Much every way : chiefly becam that unto them were committed the orgcles of God.

For what if fome did not beleeve shall their unbelief make the faith of Gol without effect ?

as Whom God hath fet forth to be a popitiation through faith in his blood, m declare his rightcournesse for the re-mission of fins that are past, through the

destrance of God

26 To declare, I fay, at this time his righteoufnesse : that he might be just, and the juftifier of him which beiceverh 27 Where is boufting then ! it is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay : be by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is suftified by faith, without the deeds of the law, 19 Is be the God of the Jews oncly ?

is he not alfo of the Gentiles ? yes, of the Gentiles alfo : 30 Seeing it is one God which hall hise the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcifion through faith. 21 Do we then make void the law through faith ? God forbid : veaswe effa-blif the law.

Abrahams faish imputed for righte-ounesse: 13 By is he and his feed reesived the promise: 16 He is the fa-

W Hat shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the field, hath found?

n they! re prebey at 2 For if Abraham were juftified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what faith the feripture ? Abraham beleeved God, and it was counted uno him for righteousnesse.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. 5 But to bim that worketh not but beleeverh on him that juftifeth the ungodly his faith is counted for righteoufnes.

6 Even as David alfo describeth the bleffednesse of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works

7 Saying, Bleffed are they whose ini-ities are forgiven, and whose fins are covered

8 Bleffed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute fin.

9 Cometh this bieffedneffe then upon the circumcifion onely, or upon the uncircumcision also ! for we say that faith

10 How was ir then reckoned ? when he was in circumcition, or in uncircum-cition, not in circumcition, but in un-circumcition.

11 And he received the figne of cir-mancifion, a feal of the rightcoufnesse of the taith, which he had yet being uneixcurocifed, that he might be the father of all them that beleeve though they be not circumcifed , that righteoufnesse might be imputed unto them alfo :

12 And the father of circumcifion to them who are not of the circumcifion onely, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcifed.

13 For the promise that he mould be the heir of the world, mas not to Abraham, or to his feed through the law, but through the righteoufnesse of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promife made of none effett.

15 Because the law worketh wrath : for where no law is , there is no tranf-

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promife might be fure to all the feed ; not to that onely which is of the laws but to ham, who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he beleeved even God who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were; 18 Who against hope, beleeved in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken. So shall thy feed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body nowdead, when he was about an hundred yeer old, neither yet the deadneffe of Saras womb :

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief : but was Arong in faith giving glory to God:

21 And being fully perforaded, that what he had promifed, he was able also to perform. 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

23 Now it was not written for his fake alone, that it was imputed to him : 24 But for us alfo, to whom it shall be imputed, if we beleeve on him that rai-fed up Jefus our Lord from the dead 25 Who was delivered for our offen ces, and was raifed again for our juflification.

Berng juftified by faith, we have peace with God. 12 As fin and death com by Asam, 17 so much more righte-ousnesse and life by Jesus Chris.

Herefore being juftified by faith-Lord Jefus Chrift :

2 By whom also we have accesse by faith into this grace wherein we fland, and rejoyce in hope of the glory of God. And not onely fo, but we glory in tribulations alforknowing that tribulari-on worketh patience: And patiences experience : and experience, hope :

For fearcely for a righteous man will one die a yet persaventure for a good man fome would even date to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us , in that while we were yet fin-

Much more then, being now jufti-Bed by his blood, we thall be faved from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to Gods by the death of bis Son : much more being reconciled, we shall be faved by his life,

11 And not onely for but we also joy In God, through our Lord leius Chrift, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man fin engered into the world , and death by fin : and fo death paffed upon all men , for that all have finned,

13 For unrill the law fin was in the world : but fin is not imputed when abere is no law.

14 Nevertheleffe,death reigned from Adam to Mofes, even over them that had not finned after the fimilitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come :

15 But not as the offence,fe alfo is the free gift : for if through the offence of one many be dead: much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which it by one man, Jefus Christ, hath abounded

16 And not as it was by one that finsed fo is the gift : for the indgement was se to condemnation : but the free gift many offences unto juftification

17 For if by one mans offence death gned by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteoufnesse, thall reign in life, y one, Jefus Chrift.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one fudgement came upon all men to con-demantion : even fo by the righteoufeffe of one, the free gift came upon all nen unto justification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience any were made sinners : so by the obedience of one, fall many be made righ-

20 Moreover , the law entered, that the offence might abound : but where fin abounded grace did much more abound.

21 That as fin hath reigned unro death; even fo might grace reign through righ-Chrift our Lord.

God forbid. How thall we that are dead to fin, live any longer therein ! were baptized into Jefus Chrift, were be prized into his death ?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by bapeifine into death , that like a Chrift was raifed up from the dead by thouid walk in newneffe of life.

S For if we have been planted toget in the likeneffe of his death : we shall be alfo in the likencie of his reforrettien:

Knowing this that our old man is erucified with him , that the body of fia might be deftroyed , that henceforth we fould not ferve fin.

For be that is dead is freed from fin. 2 Now if we be dead with Chrift , ut beleeve that we shall also live with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being taifed from the dead , dieth no more : death hath no more dominion over him 10 For in that he died , he died unte

15 What then ? fhall we fin-becaufe ne are not under the laws but under grace!

16 Know we not , that to whom ye celd your felves fervants to obey, his ervants ye are to whom ye obey ther of fin unto death, or of obedience unto righteoufnesse !

17 But God be thanked , that ye were the fervants of fin a but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doarise, which was delivered to you.

18 Being then made free from finnt became the fervants of righteoufnelle.

19 I fpeak after the ma iner of mea caufe of the infirmity of your fieft: for a ye have yeelded your members ferrans to uncleannesse and to iniquity, unto iniquity : even fo now yeeld your members fervants to righteoufneffe unto holineffe.

20 For w'en ye were the fervant of fin-ye were free from rightconfieffe. 21 What fruit had ye then in thois things whereof ye are now athamed ! for the end of those things is death. 23 But now being made free from fin and become fervants to God , se her your fruit unco holineffe, and the est

Therefore let us keep the feaft, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickednessbut with the un-Jeavened bread of fincerity and truth.

I wrote unto you in an epiftle, not to company with fornicatours.

8 Nay-you do wrong and defraud, and that your brethren.

Know ye not that the unrighteous Mall not inherit the kingdom of God ? Be not deceived, neither fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effe-minate, nor abusers of themselves with mankinde,

10 Nor theeves , nor coverous, nor drunkarde-nor revilers-nor extortioners all inlerse the hingdom of God,

14 For the unbeleeving hufband is fandified by the wife , and the unbeleeving wife is fanctified by the hufbandrelfe were rour children unclean , but now are they

15 But if the unbeleeving depart , let him depart. A brother , or a lifter is not under bondage in fuch cafes : but God hath called us to peace.

16 For what knowest thou. O wife, whether thou shalt fave thy husband ! or how knowest thousO man, whether thou halt fave thy wife

17 But as God hath diffributed to every man , as the Lord bath called every one fo let him walk , and fo ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called, being circumcifed ! let him not become uncircumcifed : is any called in uncircumcifion ? let him not be circumcifed, 10 Circumcifion is nothing, and uncircumcifion is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the fame calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a fervant ? care not for it : but if thou mayeft be made freesufe it rather. 22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a fervant, is the Lords free-man : likewife also he that is called, teing free, is Christs fervant. 23 Ye are bought with a price , be not yethe fervants of men. 24 Brethrem ler every man wherein he is called therein abide with God. 25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord : yet I give my judgement, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithfull 26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the prefent diftreffe, I fay, that it is good for a man fo to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife ? feek not to be loofed. Art thou loofed from a wife ! feek not a wife. 28. But and if thou marry thou haft not finned and if a virgin marry, the bath not finned, nevertheleffe, fuch that have trouble in the flesh : but I spare you.

29 But this I say-brethren, the time is

ort. It remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none : 30 And they that weep, as though they ept not:and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not; and they that buy, as sough they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world as not ng it : for the fashion of this world ficth away.

32 But I would have you without careineffe. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, bow may please the Lord :

22 But be that is married , careth for the things that are of the world , how he may pleafe his wife. wife and a virgin: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord that the may be hely-both in body, and in fpirit : but the that is married, careth for the things of the world , how the may pleafe her hufband.

35 And this I fpeak for your own profits not § I may call a fnare upon you but for that which is comely, & that you may attend upon the Lord without diffraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himfelf uncomely roward his virging if the passe the flower of her age and need fo require-let him do what he wil-he finneth not let them marry.

7 Nevertheleffeshe that flandeth fledfall in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath fo decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin doth well.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage, doth well : but he that giveth her not in marriage doth better

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her hufband liveth: but if her hufband be dead, the is at liberty to be married to whom the willionely in the Lord.

40 But the is happier if the fo abide after my judgement, and I think also that I have the spirit of God.
CHAP. VIII.

To abilian from meats offered to idols, 8 and not to abuse our liberty, 11 but to be bridled with charity.

Ow as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up , but charity ediffeth, 2 And if any man think that he know-eth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

But if any man love God , the fame is known of him. 4. As concerning therefore the eating those things that are offered in facrifice unto idols , we know that an idol is nothing in the world , and that there is none other God but one. 5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven, or in earth, ( as there be gods many, and lords many : )

But to us there is but one God, the Father of whom are all things, and we in him and one Lord Jefus Chrift, by whom are all things, and we by him. 7 Howbeit . there is not in every man that knowledge: for fome with conscience of the idol unto this hourscar it as athing offered unto an idoland their confcience being weakis defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not toGod: for neither if we cat , are we the bettee a neither if we eat not are we the worfe,

9 But take heed left by any means this liberty of yours become a flumbling block to them that are weak.

19 For if any man fee thee which haft knowledge, fit at mear in the idols temple-shall not the confeience of him which is weak-be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idels?

that I fay. k it not the communion of the blood of Cirifi the bread which we break is it not he communion of the body of Christ? 17 For we being many, are one bread, mi one body : for we are all partakers of fint one bread 18 Behold Ifrael after the fleth: are not bey which ear of the facrifices, partakers of the altar

19 What fay I then? that rhe idel is any hing? or that which is offered in facri-he to idols is any thing ? 20 But I fay, that the things which the Gentiles facrifice they facrifice to devils md not to God : and I would not that ne hould have fellow thip with devils.

Lord and the cup of devils: ye cannot be table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jeabulit ! are we ftronger then he ! 13 All things are fawfull for me but all ings are not expedient : all things are lawfull for me, but all things edifie not. 24 Let no man feek his own : but eve-y man anothers wealth. 25 Whatfoever is fold in the mambles, that eath asking no question for conscience fake.

26 For the earth is the Lords and the fulneffe thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid ou to a feast, and ye be disposed to go, whatfoever is fet before your eat, afking an quellion for confeience fake.

28 But if any man fay unto you. This is fered in factifice unto idols-ear not for his fake that theyed it, and for confeience fake. The earth is the Lords, and the fulneffe thereof.

29 Conscience I fay not thine own but of the others : for why is my liberty judged of another mans confeience ?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why an I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks ? 31 Whether therefore ye eat or drink. or whatfoever ye den do all to the glory of God. 32 Give none offence, neither to the fews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God : 33 Even as I please all men in all gs not feeking my own profit but the profit of many, that may be faved. C H A P. XI.

2 Now I praife you brethren that you stnember me in all things, and keep the edinances, as I delivered them to you 3 But I would have you know that the ted of every man is Christ:and the head.

of the woman is the man and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or prophelyings

5 But every woman that prayeth or prophefieth with her head uncovered. difhonoureth her bend : for that is even all one as if the were thaven. 6 For if the woman be not covered let her alfo be forn : but if it be a fame for a woman to be horn or fhaven-let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forafmuch as he is the image and glory of God : but the woman is the glory of the man.

For the man is not of the woman : but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman : but the woman for the man 10 For this cause ought the women to have power on her head, because of the angels 11 Nevertheleffe, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man: even to is the man also by the woman : but all things of Ged.

13 Judge in your felves, is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered

14 Doth not even nature it felf seach out hat if a man have long hairs is is hame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long bair it is a glory to her : for her hair is given her for a covering. 16 But if any man feem to be contentious, we have no fuch cuftom; neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto yes, I praife you not shat you come together, not for the better, but for the worfe, 18 For first of all when ye come together in the church. I hear that there be divisions among you, and I partly beleeve it.

19 For there muft be also herefies among yourthat they which are approveds may be made manifest among yo 20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to ear the Lords Supper.

21 For in esting every one takethbe-this? I praise you not. 23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unco you that the Lord Jetus, the fame night in which he was berrayed, took,bread : 24 And when he bad given thanks, he brake it, and faid. Take eat this is my body which is broken for you; this do in Charity never faileth : but whether there be prophecies, they hall fail : whether there be tongues, they hall ceafe : whether there be knowledge, is fall vanife away.

For we know in part, and we pro-phelic in part.

10 But when that which is perfed is ome, then that which is in part fall be done away :

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I understood as a childe, I thought as a childe : but when I became a man, I put away childiff things.

12 For now we fee thorow a giaffe darkiy, but then face to face : now I know in part but then hall I know even as also I am known,

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charithefe three, but the greatest of thefe is charity. XIIII. 1 Prophecie commended, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before tunques. Collow after charity, and defire spirituall gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie

2 For he that fpeaketh in an anknown tongue, fpeaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him: howbeit in the fpirit he fpeaketh myfteries.

3 But he that prophelieth, fpeaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that fpeaketh in an unknown tongut ediffeth himfelf : but he that prophelicthedifieth the church.

5 I would & ye all spake with tonguess but rather that ye prophesied : for greater is he that prophesieth then he that speak. eth with tongues except he interpretabat the church may receive edifying

Now brethren if I come unto you. feeking with tongues, what fall I profit you except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by pro-

pielying, or by doarine

7 And even things without life-glving found, whether pipe, or harp, except they give a diftination in the founds how hali it be known what is piped or harped ?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain found, who hall prepare himfeif to the bartell ?

9 So linewife you. except ye utter by the tengue words eafie to be understoods ow hall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

to There are it may be fo many kindes of voices in the world, and none of them are without fignification.

It Therefore sie I know not the meanng of the voice. I shall be unto him that peaketha Barbarian and he that fpeaketh all be a Barbarian unto me.

12 Even so yes forasmuch as ye are sealous of spirituall gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the shurch.

13 Wherefore let him that fpeaketh in as un/werru . topgues pray that he may merpret,

14 For if I pray in an anknown tongue, my fpirit prayeth, but my anderftanding is unfruitfull

15 What is it then ! I will pray with pirit and will pray with underftand-

ing alfo : I will fing with the fpirit, and I will fing with the underftanding alfo. 16 Elfe, when thou halt bleffe with the fpirit, how shall be that occupieth the room of the unlearned, fay, Amen at thy giving of thanks, feeing he understandeth not what thou faveit

17 For thou verily giveft thanks well:

but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God: I fpeak with tongues more then you all.

19. Yet in the church I had rather eak five words with my understanding that by my voyce I might teach others also, then ten the and words in an unknown tongue. 20 Brethren be not children ta underflanding: howbeit, in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With mes of other tongues, and other lips will I speak unto this people ; and yet for all that will they not hear me, faith & Lord. 22 Wherefore tongues are for a fignes not to them that beleeve, but to them that believe not : but prophefying fer-

for them which beleeve. 23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all fpeak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbeleevers will they not fay that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophetic. & there come in one that beleeveth not, or one unlearned ; he is convinced of allahe is judged of all.

25 And thus are the fecrets of his beart made manifest, and so falling down on his face, he will worthip God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then brethren ? when ye come together every one of you bath pfalm, hath a dodringhath a tongue hath a revelation, hath an interpretation : log all things be done unto edifying. 27 If any man fpeak in an unknown tongueslet it be by twosor at the most by three, and that by courfe, and let one ig-from you? or came it unto you onely?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write unto 28 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore-brethren, covet to proshelie, and forbid net to speak with tongues. 40 Let all things be done decently, and In order.

CHAP. XV. 3 By Christs resurretion, 12 he proveth the necessity of ours, against such as deny it

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also you have received, and wherein ye frand.

2 By which also ye are faved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unleffe ye have beleeved in vain.

3. For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that 11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many perions, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoycing is this the tellinony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly fincerity, not with flefuly wildom but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things auto you then what you read, or acknowledge, and I truft you shall acknowledge

For out of much amidion and anguith of heart I wrete unto you with many rears, not that ye hould be grieved. but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

II Let Saran fould get an advantage of us : for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Traas to preach Christs gospel, and a door

13 I had no reft in my fpirit-becaufe [ found not Titus my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went from theme into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which alwayes caufeth us to triumph in Christand maketh manifest the favour of his knowledge by us in every place.
15 For we are unto God a free fe vour of Chrift. in them that are favel and in them that perift.

16 To the one me are the favour of death unto death, and to the other, the favour of life unto life : and who is fulficient for thefe things ?

17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God : but as of fincerity, but as of God, in the fight of God Speak we in Christ.

4 And fuch truft have we through Christ to God-ward :

5 Not that we are fufficient of our felyes to think any thing, as of our felves: but our fufficiencie is of God:

6 Who alfo hath made us able minifers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the fpirit : for the letter killeth.

but the fpirit giveth life

7 But if the ministration of death.written and engraven in flones, was glorious, fo that the children of Ifrael could not fledfaftly behold the face of Mofes, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away : 8 How hall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious

9 For if the ministration of condemnatien be glery, much more doth the minifiration of righteoufnes exceed in glory. 10 For area that which was made glo-reason of the glory that excelleth.

glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. 12 Seeing then that we have fuch hope, we use great plainnesse of speech.

13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Ifrael could not fledfastly look to the end of that which is abolified;

14 But their mindes were blinded: for until this day remaineth & fame vail untaken away in & reading of the old teftament: which vail is done away in Christ. 15 But even unto this day, when Mofes is read, the vail is upon their heart. 16 Nevertheleffeiwhen it thall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away 17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty 18 But weall. with open face beholding as in a glaffe the glory of the Lord, are changed into the fame image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of she Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Pouls diligence in preaching, and bis troubles for the fame.

Herefore feeing we have this miniflery as we have received mercy, we faint not :

a But have renounced the hidden things of dishonedy, not walking in craftinesse, nor handling the word of God deceirfully, but by manifeflation of the truth, commending our felves to every mans confeience in the fight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid it is kid to them that are loft i

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the mindes of them which beleeve not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should thine unto them.

5 For we preach not our felves, but Christ Jefus the Lord, and our felves your ferrants for Jelus fake_

6 For God who commanded the light to fhine out of darkneffe, hath fhined in our hearts to give the light of the know ledge of the glory of God, in the sace of Jeins Chrift

7 But we have this treafure in earthen veffels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

We are troubled on every fide, yet not diftreffed ; we are perplexed but not in defpair ; 9 Perfecuteds but not forfaken ; caft down, but not deftroyed ;

10 Alwayes bearing about in the bady the dying of the Lord Jefus, that the life alfo of Jefus might be made manifeft in, our bedy.

11 For we which live, are alway delivered anto death for Jefus fake, that the life affo of Jesus might be made mani-

12 So then death worketh in us but life in you.

13 We having the fame fpirit of faith according as it is written. I beleeved and therefore have I (poken: we also beleeves and therefore fpeak.

14 Knowing that he which raifed up the Lord Jefus, mall raife up us also by Jefus, and hall prefent us with you.

15 For all things are for your fakess that the abundant grace might, through the thankfgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not, but though our outward man perift, yet the inward man is renewed day by day

17 For our light affidion, which is but for a moment worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternall weight of glory.

18 White we look no: at the things which are feen, but at the things which are not feen : for the things which are feen, are temporally but the things which are not feen, are eternall.

CHAP.

1 That in hope of immortall glory, 9 and in experance of it be labours to keep a good conscience.

Or we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were diffetved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hand, eternall in the heavens.

2 For in this we groin earneftly, defiring to be clothed upon with our house, which is from beaven.

If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groun, being burdened, not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon moreality might be fwallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the felf fame thing, is God, who also bath given unto us the earned of the Spirit.

Therefore we are alwayes confidents knowing that whileft we are at home in the body, we are ablent from the Lord.

(For we walk by faith, not by fight.) 8 We are consident . I fay, and willing rather to be ablent from the body, and ag e present with the Lord.

Wherefore we labour, that whether refent or absent, we may be accepted of him.

5 And this they did not as we hoped but Art gave their own felves to the Lord, and anto us by the will of God.

6 Infomuchthat we defired Tirus that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the fame grace alfo. 7 Therefore ( as ye abound in every ngun faithi& utterance, & knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us) for that ye sbound in this grace alfe. 8 I fpeak not by commandment but b eccation of the forwardnes of others, and to prove the fincerity of your love. 9 For ye know the grace of our Lord lefas Christ that though he was rich, yet for your takes he became poor, that ye through his powerty might be rich.

to And herein I give my advice s for this is expedient for yous who have begun beforesnot onely so do but also to be forward a yeer ago

It Now therefore perform the doing it that as there was a readines to will fothere may be a performance also out of that which you have.
It For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to $ a man harks and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mem not that other men be taled,and you bandened 4:

14 But by an equality : that now at this time your abundance may be a fupply for their want, that their abundance also may be a fupply for your want that there may be equality.

15 As it is written. He that had gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gethered little, had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the fame earnest care into the heart of Titus

17 For indeed he accepted the exhorts. tion but being more forward, of his own accord he west unto you.

18 And we have fent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel, thorowout all the churches.

19 And not that eacly-but who was alus, with this grace which is administred by us to the glory of the fame Lord, and declaration of your ready minde.

20 Avoiding this, that no man hould blame us in this abundance which is administred by us.

21 Providing for honeft things , not onely in the fight of the Lord , but in the fight of men.

22 And we have fent with them our brother , whom we have oftentimes groved diligent in many things , but i nuch more diligent upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titues he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you : or our brethren be enquired of they are the messengers of the churchessend the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore, hew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boating on your behalf.

C. H. A. P. IX.

1. He showeth why he sent Total . 6 and flirreth them up to a bountifull aimis

Or as touching the ministring to the faints , it is superfluous for me to write to you.

For I know the forwardnes of your minde, for which I boaft of you to them of Macedonia , that Achaia was ready a yeer ago, and your zeal hath provoked wes

3 Yet have I fent the brethren-left our

CHAP. XIII.

I He threateneth obstinate finners : 5 He adviset to trial of faith: 11 He con-

Cludeth with prayer.

This is the third time I am coming to you : in the mouth of two or to you : in the mouth of two or hree wirneffes thall every word be eftablifhed.

2 I told you before and foretell you as f I were prefent the fecond time, and being absent now I write to them which herecofore have finned, and to all other, that if I come again-I will not spare : 3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak-but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weaknesse, yet he liveth by the power of God : for we also are weak in him , but we hall live with him by the power of God reward you

4 And that because of false breehren mawares brought in who came in privily to fpie out our liberty, which we have in Christ Jefus, that they might bring us imo bondage.

5 To whom we gave place by fubicalon not not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of thefe, who feemed to be fomewhat, (what foever they were, it maketh so matter to me God accepteth no mans person) for they who seemed to be somewhit in conference added nothing to me 7 But contrariwife, when they faw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me; as the gospel of the circumcifion was unto Peter : 8 (For he that wrought effcaually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcifion, the fame was mighty in me towards the Gentiles) 9 And when James, Cephas, and John, rito feemed to be pillars, perceived the to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowhips that we should go unto the heathen and they unto the circumcifion.

10 Onely they would that we fould remember the poor, the fame which I alfo was forward to do.

II But when Peter was come to Antioth I withflood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did cat with the Gentiles : but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself , fearing them which were of the circumcifion.

13 And the other Jows diffembled likewife with him, infomuch that Barnahas also was carried away with their dif-

fimulation. 14 But when I faw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all. If thou, being a Jew, liveft after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the lens, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jewa?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not finners of the Gentiles

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of lefus Chrift : even we have beleeved n feius Chrift-that we might be juftified by the faith of Christ and not by the works of the law hall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we feck to be justified by Christ, we our felves also are found sinners: is therefore Christ the minister of fin ? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make my felf a tranfgreffour.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might five unto God. 20 I am crucified with Christ. Never-the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himfelf for me.

21 I do not fruftrate the grace of God: for if righteouincife come by the laws then Chrift is dead in vain.

CHAP. III

I He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and being on the law. 6 They that beleaves are justified.

O Foolish Galatians, who hath be-obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Chrift hath been evidently fet forth, crucified among you?

2 This onely would I learn of your Received ye the spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye fo foolin ! having begun in the fpirit, are ye now made perfett by the fielh !

Have ye fuffered fo many things in vain ? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the fpirit, and worketh miracles amos you, doth he it by the works of the laws or by the hearing of faith ?

6 Even as Abraham beleeved God & it was accounted to him for righteouineffe.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

And the scripture, forefeeing that God would justific the heathen through faith, preached before the googel onto Abraham, faying In thee shall all nations be bleffed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are bleffed with faichfull Abraham,

10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse : for it is written Curical is every one that centi-aneth not in all things which are writ-ten in the book of the law-to do them.

II Bur that no man is jud iffed by the law in the light of God, it is evident 3 for. The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith : but the man that doth them thall live in them. 13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us : for it is written, Curfed is every one that hangeth on tree.

14 That the bleffing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through lefus Christ : that we might receive the promife of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: though it be but a mans covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man difanulleth or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his feed were the promifes made. He fairh nots And to feeds as of many : but as of one, And to

17 And this I fay that the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christs the laws which was four bundred an thirty yeers after cannot difanuil, th should make the promife of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the laws it is no more of promife: but God gave it to Absaham by promife.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, thut up unto the faith, which thould afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmafter to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-mafter.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Chrift Jefus, vell in birth again , untill Christ be formed in you : 20 I defire to be prefent with you now and to change my voice, for I fland in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that defire to be under the law do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two fons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman,

23 But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the fieth : but he of the free-woman, was by promife.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arais and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all. 27 For it is written, Rejovce, thou barren, that beareft not, break forth and cry, thou that travelieft not, for the defolate hath many moe children then at which hath an hulband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Ifax was are the children of promife. 29 But as then he that was born after the fieth perfecuted him that was bern after the fpirit ; even fo it is now. 30 Nevertheles, what faith & fcripture !

Caft out the boad-woman and her fon : for the fon of the bond-woman fall not be heir with the fon of the free-woman. 31 So then brethren we are not childres of the bond-woman, but of the free.

Or your felves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

But even afrer that we had fuffered before, and were mamefully intreated, as e knowat Philippi, we were bold in our God to fpeak unto you the gofpel of God with much contention.

For our exhortation was not of degeirsnor of uncleanneffe, nor in guile :

4 Bur as we were allowed of God to be out in trust with the gospel, even so we peak, not as pleafing men, but God, which trieth our hearts For neither at any time used w . flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of coverousnesse, God is wirnesse: 6 Nor of men fought we glory neimight have been burdenfom, as the zpoflies of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among your even as a nurfe cherifheth her children :

So being affectionately defirous of your we were willing to have imparted unto your not the gofpel of God onely, but alfo our own fouls, becanfe ye were

dear unto us.

9 9 For ye remember-brethren-our labour and travel : for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of your we preached unto you the gofpel of God.

And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command your brethrens in the name of our Lord Jefus Chrift that ye wirhdraw your felves from every brother that walkerh diforderly and not after the tradition which he received of us. 7 For your felves know how ye ought to fellow us : for we behaved not our kives diforderly among you. 8 Neither did we eat any mans bread for nought : but wrought with labour and travel night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not because we have not power, but to make our felves an enfample unte you to follow us. 10 For even when we were with your this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither fhould he eat. II For we hear that there are fome which walk among you diforderly, working not at all, but are bufie-bodies. 12 Now them that are fuch we comnand, and exhort by our Lord Jefus Christ, that with quietnesse they works and ear their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epiftle, note that man, and have no company with hims that he may be ashamed .:

15 Yet count him not as an enemy but admonif him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himfelf give you peace alwayes, by all means. The Lord be with you all. 17 The falutation of Paul with mine

CHAP. Pauls charge to Timothy. & The use of the law. 11 Of Pauls catting. 20 Of Hymeneus and Alexander

our Saviour, and Lord Jefus

Christs which is our hopes

2 Unto Timothy my own the faith : Grace, mercy, and esce from God. our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord. As I befought thee to abide fill at Ephefus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine;

4 Neither give heed to fables, and todleffe genealogies, which minister wellions, rather then godly edifyings which is in faith : fo do. Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good confeience, and of faith unfeigned. 6 From which fome having fwerved, hove turned afide unto vain jangling. 7 Defiring to be teachers of the laws whereof they affirm. 8 But we know that the Isw is good; if a man use it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteons man but for the baleffe and defobedient, for the ungodly me for finners, for unholy and profame, for murderers of fathers, and murderers af mothers, for man flayers,

10. For whoremengene, for shem that defile themfe'ves with mankinder for men stealers, for liars, for perjured per-fons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to found doctrine,

II According to the glorious gofpel of the bleffed God, which was committed to my truft. 12 And I thank Christ Jeius our Lords who bath enabled me ; for that he counted me faithfulls putting me into the ministery

13 Who was before a blafphemer, and a perfecueour, and injurious. But I obrained mercy-because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, and love: which is in Christ Jefus.

15. This is a faithfull faying, and wors thy of all acceptation, that Christ Jefus came into the world to fave finners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this canfe I obtained! that in me firft Jefus Chris might thew forth all long-fuffering, for a parern to them which fould he reafres beleeve on him to life everlasting, Now unto the king eternal himmorarall-invisible the onely wife God- be how nour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 18 This charge I commit unto thees fon Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee that though by them mighteft war a good warfare.

19. Holding faith and a good confereence, which fome having put away, cone eerning faith have made thipwrack.

1 That in the latter times shan be a de-parture from the faith. 6 Paul gives precepts to Timothy Ow the Spirit speaketh expressyn that in the latter times some sall depart from the fairh, giving heed to feducing spirits and doarines of devils : 2 Speaking lies in hypocrifie, having their conscience seared with a hot iron 3 Forbidding to marry and command ing to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving, of them which beleeve and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is goods and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thankfgiving :

5 For it is fandified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in rememberance of these things, thou fast be a good minister of Jefus Christ, nourified up in the words of faith, and of good doftrine, whereunto theu haft attained.

But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thy felf rather unto godlineffe.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth littles but godlineffe is profitable unto all things, having promife of the life that now is and of that which is to come

This is a fairhfull faying, and worthy of all acceptation :

10 For therefore we both labours and fuffer reproach, because we truft in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that beleeve. 11 These things command and teach.

with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have beleeved do enter into reft as he faid , As I have fworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my reft , although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the feventh day, on this wife, And God did reft the feventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again ; If they fall enter into my reft.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that fome must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again-he limiteth a certain day-faying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said. To day if ye will hear his voice hearden not your hearts. 8 For if Jefus had given them reft, then would be not afterward have spoken of another day. There remaineth therefore a reft to the people of God. 10 For he that is entered into his reft, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

IT Let us labour therefore to enter into that reft, left any man fall after the fame example of unbelief.

THe exhorteth not to fall back from the faith. 12 but to be diligent in weiting upon God.

Herefore leaving the principles of the doarine of Christ, let us go on perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance works, and of faith towards God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptismes, and of laying on of hands, and of refurred ion of the dead and of evernall judgement.

20 Whither the fore-runner is for us entered; even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchifedec. CHAP. VII.

Chrift is a priest after the order of Melchiledec, '11 for above the priegt of Aarons order

Or this Melchifedec king of Salem Priest of the most High God , who met Abraham returning from the tlaughter of the kings and bleffed him :

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all : firft, being by interpretation part of all: first, being by interpretation king of rightcoufnessend after that allo king of Salemondich is king of peace: 3 Without father, without motion without descent i having neither beginning of dayes, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a prieft continually.

4 Now confider how great this mm was unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the ipoils.

And verily they that are of the fens of Levi , who receive the office of the priefthood have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the lawsthat is of their brethren though they come out of the loins of Abraham :

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and bleffed him that had the promises, And without all contradiction, the leffe is bleffed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes : but there he receivesh them, of whom it is wirneffed that he liveth. 9 And as I may fo fay, Levi alfo, who receiverh tithes, payed tithes in Abraham : 10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchifedee met him. It If therefore perfection were by the Leviticall priesthood (for under it the people received the law ) what further need was there that another prieft hould rife after the order of Melchifedec , and not be called after the order of Aaron ! 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of neceditie a change also of the law. 13 For he of whom thefe things are fpoken-pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord fgrang out of Juda, of which tribe Mofes spake nothing concerning prieshood.

15 And it is yet far more evident : for that after the fimilitude of Melchifedet there arifeth shother prieft.

14 How much more shall the blood of Chrift, who through the eternall Spirit offered himself without spot to God, urge your conscience from dead works, to ferve the living God !

15 And for this canfe he is the Mediatour of the new testaments that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive & promise of eternal inheritance.

For where a testament is . there must also of necessity be the death of the testarour.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no arength at all, whileft & restatour liveth.

18 Wherenpon neither the firft teffament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Mofes had fpoken every precept to all the people, according to the lawshe took the blood of calves, and of goats, with water, and scarlet wooll, and hylop, and iptinkled both the book and all the people, 20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoyned un-

21 Moreover, he fprinkled with blood oth the rabernacle, and all the veffels of the ministery.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood : and without feedding of blood is no remifion.

23 It was therefore necessary that the paterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves, with better factifices then there.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true-but into heaven it new to appear in the presence of God for us

25 Nor yet that he fould offer himfelf often, as the high prieft entereth into the holy place, every yeer with blood of others :

26 For then must be often have fuffered fince the foundation of the world : but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away fin by the facrifice of himself.

19 An exhortation to faith.

For the law having a madow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things can never with those factifices which they offered yeer by eer continually make the comers theseinto perfea :

For then would they not have crafed to be offered ? because that the worthippers once purged. Mould have had no ore confeience of fins.

But in those facrifices there is a rembrance again made of Gos every year 4 For it is not pollible that the blood of bulsade of goats mould take away fins:

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he faith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldeft not ; but, a body haft thou prepared me :

In burnt-offerings and facrifices for fin theu halt had no pleafure:
7 Theu faid I. Lo.I come (In the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he faid, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for fin thou wouldest not neither hadft pleasure therein, which are offered by the law :

9 Then faid he, Lo, I come to do thy will (O God :) he taketh away the fifth that he may establish the second. 10 By the which will we are fandified, through the offering of the body of Jefus Christ once for all. 11 And every priest standeth daily ministring, and offering oftentimes the same facrifices, which can never take away fins.

12 But this man, after he had offered one facrifice of fins for every fate down on the right hand of God,

13 From henceforth expeding till his enemies be made his footftool

14 For by one offering he hath perfeited for ever them that are fandified : 15 Whereof the holy Ghost also is a wirneffe to us : for after that be had faid before.

15 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those dayes faith § Lord: I wil. put my laws into their hearts, and in their mindes will I write them :

17 And their fins and iniquities will I remember no more.

30 For we know him that hath faid, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompensessaith the Lord : and again, The Lord fhall judge his people.

31 It is a fearfull thing to fall into the the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which after ye were illuminated, ge endured a great fight of affilitions :

33 Partly whileft ye were made a gazing flock, both by reproaches, and affliaions, and partly whileft ye became companions of them that were fo ufed.

34 For ye had compation of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in your selves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring finbftance.

35 Caft not away therefore your con-Adence, which hath great recompence of reward

36 For ye have need of parience, that ifter ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promife.

37 For yet a little while, and he that hall come, will come, and will not tarry. 38 Now the just mall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my foul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw ack unto perdition : but of them that beleevesto the faving of the foul.

CHAP. 1 What faith is. 6 Without faith me cannot please God: 7 The fruits there-of in the fathers of old time.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped fors the evidence of things not feen.

2 For by it the clders obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, fo that things which are feen, were not made of things which do appear. 4 By faith Abel offered unto God a were excellent facrifice then Kain , by which he obtained witnesse that he was ighteous God teftifying of his gifts:and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated, that he mould not fee death, and was not and, because God had translated him : for before his translation, he had this teftimony that he pleased God.

6 But withour faith it is impossible to please him ; for he that cometh so God, ult beleeve that he is , and that he is a newarder of them Sdiligently feek him.

By faith Noe, being warned of God of things not feen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the faving of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteonfneffe which is by faith.

By faith Abraham, when he was cal led to go out into a place which he hould after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, nd he went out, not knowing whisher he

9 By faith he fojourned in the land of promifes as in a ftrange countrey, dwel-ling in tabernacles with I fase and Jacobs the heirs with him of the fame promife.

10 For he looked for a city which bath foundations, whose builder and maker is

II Through faith alfo Sara ber felf received strength to conceive feed , and was delivered of a childe when the past age, because me judged him fairhfull who had promifed.

12 Therefore iprang there even of ones and him as good as dead , fo many as the ftars of the fkie in multitude, and as the fand which is by fea-more innumerable.

13 Thefe all died in faith, not having received the promifes, but having feen them afar off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers; and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that fay fuch things , declare plainly that they feek a countrey

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of that countrey, from wheate they came out , they might have had opportunity to have returned :

16 But now they defire a better coun trey, that is, an heavenly : wherefore God is not afnamed to be called their God's for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Ifaac ; and he that had received the promifes offered up his onely begotten fon-

18 Of whom it was faidsthat, In Ifaac

20 By faith faac bieffed Jacob and Efau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying bleffed both the fons of Joseph, and wor thipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith loseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Ifrael , and gave commandment conterning his bones.

23 By faith Mofes, when he was borne was hid three moneths of his parents, be cause they saw he was a proper childe and they not afraid of the kings commandment.

24 By faith Mofes, when he was come to yeers , refused to be called the fon of Pharaohs daughters

25 Chufing rather to fuffer afficien with the people of Godsthen to enjoy the pleasures of fin for a scalon a 25 Effeeming the reproach of Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt : for he had refped unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forfook Egypt, nor fearing the wrath of the king : for he enda-red as feeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept & paffeover and the sprinkling of blood , left he that destroyed & first-born hould touch them.

29 By faith they passed thorow the Red-sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to dowere drowned.
30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were compassed about feven dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perified not with them that beleeved not : when the had received the fpics with peace.

32 And what shall I more fay ? for the time would fail me to tel of Gedeon and of Barak, and of Samfon, and of Jephthac, of David alfo, and Samuel, and of the

An exhortation to faith, patience, and godlineste. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old;

Herefore seeing we also are comof witnesses let us lay aside every weights and the fin which doth so easily befet us and let us run with parience the race that is fet before us,

2 Looking unto Jefus the authour and finisher of our faith: who for the joy that was set before him endured $ crosses despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God

THE GENERALL EPISTLE FAMES.

CHAP. We must rejoyce under the crosse. 19 To Ames a fervant of God and of the Lord Jefus Christon the twelve tribes which are featured abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren. 2 My brethren, count it all joy, when ye fall into divers temperations,

3 Knowing this that the your sith worketh patience,

4 But let patience have her perfect work: that ye may be perfect and entire, maning nothing.

5 If any of you lack wifdom, let him the field, the rivest he all men libe. afk of God, that giveth to all men libe-rally and upbraideth not : and it shall be given him. 6 But let him afk in faith, nothing wavering : for he that wavereth is like a wave of the fea, driven with the windes and toffed. 7 For let not that man think that he all receive any thing of the Lord. 8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree re-loyee in that he is exalted.

10 But the rich in that he is made low : because as the flower of the graffe he hall paffe away.

II For the fun is no fooner rifen with a burning hear, but it withereth the graffe, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: fo also hail the rich man fade away in his wayer.

12 Bleffed is the man that endureth temptations for when he is tried he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promifed to them .hat love him.

13 Let no man fay wien he is tempteds I am tempted of God for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth be any man.

14But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own luft, and enriced

15 Then when luft harn conceived, it bringeth forth fin : and fin, when it is finifhed, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not erreamy beloved brethren. 17 Every good gif:, and every perfect gift is from above & cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableneffe, neither fladow of turning,

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a binde of first-fruits of his creatures

19 Where. M m

fpeak, flow to wrath. 20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteonineffe of God. 21 Wherefore lay spart all filthineffe, and fuperfluity of naughtinesse, and receive with meekneffe the ingraffed word, which is able to fave your fouls. 22 But be ye doers of the word and not bearers only deceiving your own felves. 23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a deer, he is like unto a man beholding his naturall face in a glaffe :

24 For he bel olderh himfelf and goeth his way and ftraightway forgetteth what manner of man he was,

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be bleffed in his deed.

26 If any man among you feem to be religions, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans religion is vain.

Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, to vifit the fatherleffe and widows in their affiliation, and to keep himfelf unspotted from the world.

Regard not the rich, nor despise the poor, 14 Not to bong of faith alone.

My brethren, have not the faith of Our Lord Jefus Christ, the Lord of glory, with refpet of persons. 2 For if there come unto your affembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poor man, in vile raiment :

3 And ye have refped to him that searcth the gay clothing, and fay unto him, Sir thon here in a good place : and Tay to the poor, Stand thou there, or fit here under my footftool :

4Are ye not then partiall in your felves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, my beloved brethren. Hath ot God chofen & poor of this world rich n faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? 6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppresse you and draw you before the judgement feats ?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy Name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfill the royall law, according the scripture, Thou malt love thy to the fcripture , neighbour as thy felf, ye do well.

But if ye have respect to persons,ye commit fin, and are convinced of the law as transgressours.

To For whosever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. adultery, faid alfo Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery yet if thou kills thou art become a transgressour of & law. 12 So speak yearnd so do as they that thall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgement with-

14 What doth it profit, my brethrens though a man fay he hath faith, and have not works ! can faith fave him

lineste of life.

Hat which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have feen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of rife :

( For the life was manifested and we have feen it and bear witness & hew un-to you that eternall life which was with the Father, and was manifefted unto us )

That which we have feen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowhip with us; and truly our fellowhip is with the Father, and with his Son Jefus Christ.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you. that God is light, and in him is no darkneffe at all.

d If we fay that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darknoffe, we lie and do not the truth.

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowthip one with another, and the blood of Jefus Christ his Son cleanfeth us from all fin.

If we fay that we have no fin , we deceive our felves , and the truth is not in us

9 If we confesse our fins he is faithful and just to forgive us our fins , and to cleanse us from all unrighteousnesse. 10 If we fay, that we have not finnels

we make him a liar, and his word is not HAP II.

1 Christ our advocate. 3 To know God's to keep his commandments, 9 and to love our brethren. MY little children, these things write I unto you that ye sin not. And if any man fin , we have an advocate with the Father, Jefus Christ the righteous :

And he is the propiriation for our fins : and not for ours onely, but alfofor the fins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him if we keep his commandments.

4 He that faith-I know him, and keepeth nor his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word in him verily is the love of God perfected : hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that faith he abideth in him, ought himfelf alfo fo to walk-even as he walked

7 Brethrens I write no new commandment unto you but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning : the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Againsa new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him, and in you : because the darknesse is past, and

9 He that faith he is in § light.& haterb his brothers is in darknes even until now. 10 He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light and there is none occasion of Rumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkneffe, and walkerh in darkneffe, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes,

12 I write unto you little children becanfe your fins are forgiven you for his

Names fake.

13 I write unto you,fathers,because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto your young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you-little children, because ye have known the father

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from became ye have written unto you, young men-because ye are strong and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have prercome the wicked one. Is Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world, If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world the Just of the fleft, the luft of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

7 And the world paffeth away, and the luft thereof: but he that dorn the will of God, abideth for ever.

18 Little childrensit is $ laft time:and as ye have heard & Antichrift hall comes whereby we know that it is the last time, 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us : for if they had been of withus : but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

know it, and that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that lefus is the Christ: He is Antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. 23 Who foever denieth & Son, the fame hath not the Father ; but he that acknowseigerb the Sen, bath the Father alfo.

24 Let that therefore abide in your which ye have heard from the beginning: if that which ye have heard from the be-ginning hall remain in you, ye also hall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promifed us, even eternall life. 26 Thefe things have I written unto you, concerning them that feduce you,

27 But the anointing which ye have re-ceived of him-abideth in you: & ye need not that any man teach you: but as the fame anointing teacheth you of al things, and is truth and is no lie : and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. 28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he hall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one which doth righte-

17 But who fo hath this worlds good, and feeth his brother hath need - and fhutteth up his bowels of compaffion from bim; how dwelleth flove of God in him?

18' My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and fhall affure our hearts before him. 20 For if our heart condemn us,

God is greater then our heart and know-eth all things. 21Beloved if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God. 22 And whatfoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandment, and do those things that are plea-

as he gave us commandment. 24 And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him : and hereby we know that he abideth in us by the fpirit which he hath given us.

Re warneth them not to beleeve all teachers but to try them by the rules of

The catholike faith.

Beloved-beleeve not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God: became many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the fpirit of God : every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every fpirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that Spirit of Antichrift, whereof you have heard, that it hould come, and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children,& have overcome them : because greater is he that is in youthen he that is in & world.

They are of the world , therefore fpeak they of the world, and the world beareth them.

We are of God : he that knoweth God-heareth us ; he that is not of God, beareth not us:hereby know we the fpirit of truth, and the fpirit of errour.

7 Beloved let us love one another: for love is of God: and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not

God : for God is love. In this was manifefted the love of God towards us, because that God fent his onely begotten Son into the world, ahat we might live through him. 10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and fent his Son to he the propitiation for our fins.

11 Beloved, if God fo loved us; we sught also to love one another, 12 No man hath feen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfeded in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him-and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have feen, and do teftife, that the Father fent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whofoever shall confesse that Jefus is the Son of God, God dwellerh in him, and he in Ged.

16 And we have known, and beleeved the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfed that we may have boldnesse in the day of judgement, because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfeet love cafteth out fear : because fear hath torment : he that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he fiil lowed me

20 If a man fay-I love God and harein his brother he is a liar. Forhe that loveth not his brother whom he hath feen, how can he love God whom he hath not feen! 21 And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, love his brother alfo. CH A P.

He that loveth God loveth his children and keepeth his commandments. 9 Jefus is able to fave us.

V the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat leweth him also that is begotten of him.

By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and keep his commandments.

For this is the love of God that we keep his commandments, and his commandments are not grievous

4 For whatfoever is born of God overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world , even our

This is he that came by water md blood, even Jesus Christ, not by water onely, but by water and blood : and it is the Spirit that beareth witneffe, becufe the Spirit is truth.
7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father-the Word, and the holy Ghost : and these three are one.

And there are three that bear wines in earth, the spirit and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

If we receive the witnesse of men the witnesse of Ged is greater : for this is the witnesse of God, which he hath to fified of his Son.

10 He that beleeveth on the Son of God, harh the witneffe in himfelf : bt that beleeveth not Godshath made hima liar, because he believeth not the recoil that God gave of his Son.

11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last : and what thou feeffs write in a book, and fead it unto the feven churches which are in Afia, unro Ephefus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardissand Philadelphia and unto Lacdicea.

12 And I turned to fee the voice that fpake with me. And being turned, I law feven golden candlefticks.

13 And in § midft of the feven candle. flicks, one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to $ foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wooll, as white as fnow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire,

15 And his feet like unto fine braffes as if they burned in a furnace : and his voice as the found of many waters

16 And he had in his right hand feven flars: and out of his mouth went a flarp two-edged fword: and his countenance was as the fun thineth in his ftrength.

17 And when I faw him. I fell at his feet as dead : and he laid his right hand upon me, faying unto me, Fear not, I am the first and the laft. 18 I am he that liveth-& was dead: and beheld. I am alive for evermore, Amen, and have the keys of hell-and of death.

19 Write the things which thou haft feen and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter,

The mystery of the seven stars which thou fawest in my right hand, and the feven golden candleflicks. The feven flars are the angels of the feven churches; and the feven candlesticks which thou faweft, are the feven churches.

CHAP. II. What is to be written unto the angels of the churches of Ephelus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 and Thyatira. Nto the angel of the church of Ephefus, write, These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midft of the feven golden candlefticks : I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy parience, and how thou canft not bear them which are evil- and thou haft tried them which fay they are apostles, and are not, and haft found them liars : 3 And haft born, and haft patience, and for my Names fake haft laboured, and haft not fainted. Nevertheleffe , I have fomewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the fait works, or cife I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candleftick out of his place, except thou repent.

But this thou halt that thou hatelt the deeds of & Nicolaitans, which I also hate.
7 He that bath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit faith unto the churches : To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradife of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna, write, Thefe things faith & firft, and the laft, which was dead, and is alive,

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty but thou are rich and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the fynagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou halt fuffer : behold, the devil hall cast fome of you into prifon that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten dayes : be thou faithfull unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

II He that hath an ears let him hear what the Spirit faith unto the churches He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the fecond death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos, write, These things faith he, who hath & farp sword with two edges,

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwelleft, even where Sarans feat is, and thou holdest fast my Name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those dayes wherein Antipas was my faithfull martyr, who was flain among you, where Satan dwellerh.

14 But I have a few things against theer because thou hast there them that hold the doffrine of Balaam, who taught Palac to caft a flumbling block before the children Ifrael, to eat things facrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hare.

16 Repents or else I will come unte thee quickly, and will fight against them with the fword of my mouth. 17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit faith unto the churches a

To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth,

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira, write, Thefe things faith & Son of God, who hath his eys like unto a flame of fire and his feet are like fine braffe :

19 I know thy works, and charity, and fervice and faith. & thy patience and th works,and $ laft to be more then the Brit.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebels which calleth her felf a propheteffer to teach and to feduc my fervants to commit fornication, and to ear things facrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and the repented nor. and them that commit adultery with hers into great tribulation; except they repent of their deeds,

23 And

23 And I will kill her children with . death, and all the churches shall know that I am he which fearcheth the reins and hearts : and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I fay, and unto the reft in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they fpeak, I will put upon you none other burden :

But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: 27 (And he hall rule them with a rod of iron ; as the veffels of a potter hall they be broken to thivers) even as I received of my Father. 28 And I wil give him & morning flar.

2 The angel of the church of Sardie is re-proved, 10 of Philadelphia approved, 15 of Laodicea rebuked.

A Nd unto the angel of the church in Sardis, write, Thefe things faith he at hath the feven spirits of God, and the feven (tars ; I know thy works: that thou haft a name that thou liveft and art dead.

2 Be watchfulls and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die : for I have not found thy works per-feet before God.

Remember therefore how thou haft received,& heard, and hold faft,& repent. If therefore thou fhalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief and thou fhalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou haft a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy.

He that overcometh, the fame fhall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his angels.

He that hath an car, let him hear what the Spirit faith unto the churches.

And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write, These things faith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man fhutteth, and fhutteth, and no man openeth;

I know thy works : behold, I have fet before thee an open door, and no man can thut it : for thou haft a little frength, and haft kept my word, and haft not denied my Name.

9 Behold-I will make them of the fynagogue of Saran, which fay they are Jews, and are not but do lie bahold I will make them to come, and worthip before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee

19 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience. I also will keep thee from upon all the world to try them that dwel mpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly, hold that fast which thou hall, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God and ke thall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerufalems which cometh down our of heaven from my God: and I will write agon him my new name.

13 Me that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit faith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans-write. These things faith the Amen, the faithfull and true witneffe, the beginning of the creation of God :

15 I know thy works, that thou art seither cold nor bot, I would thou went

16 So then because thou art luke. warm, and neither cold nor hot, I will

fpuc thee out of my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest. I am rich and increased with goods, and have need of nothing : and knowest not that they are wretched, and miferable, and poor, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counfell thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayeft be rich, and white raiment, that thou mayed be clothed, and that the flame of thy naked. neffe do not appear, and anoint thine eyes with eye falve, that thou mayeft fee.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chaften : be zealous therefore and repent.

20 Behold, I fland at the door, and knock, if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him and will fup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh, will I grant to fit with me in my throne, even as I alfo overcame and am fet down with my Father in his throne. 23 He that hath an ear, ler him hear

The fift angel founding, a flar falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

A Nd the fift angel founded and I faw a ftar fall from heaven unto the earth : and to him was given the key of the bottomleffe pit.

And he opened the bottomleffe pit, and there arose a smoak out of the pit-as the smoak of a great furnace, and the funand the air were darkened, by reason of the fmoak of the pit.

And there came out of the fmoak locults upon the earth , and unto them was given power, as the fcorpions of the earth have power. 4 And it was commanded them that they hould not hurt the graffe of the earthmeither any green thing-neither any tree: but onely those men which have not the feal of God in their fore-heads.

And to them it was given that they hould not kill them but that they should be tormented five moneths, and their torment was as the torment of a fcorpion when he ftriketh a man.

And in those dayes shall men feek death, and hal not finde it, and hal defire to die and death thall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horfes prepared unto battel, and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold , and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of wemen, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions 9 And they had breft-plates as it were breft-plates of iron, and the found of their wings was as the found of charets?

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were flings in their rails :

II And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue, is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 One wo is past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the fixt angel founded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the fixt angel which had the trumpet, Loofe the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates. et, Loofe the four angels which

15 And the four angels were loofed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a moneth, and a yeer, for to flay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horfmen were two hundred thousand thousand: & I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I faw the horses in the vibreft plates of fire-& of jacina and brimflone, and the heads of the borfes were as the heads of lions, & out of their mouths issued fire and smook and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed by the fire, and by the imoak, and by the brimftone which iffued out of therein, their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouths and in their tails: for their tails were like unto ferpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worthip devils, and idols of gold, and filver, and braffe, and ftone, and of wood, which neither can fee, nor hears nor walk :

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their forceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

fea and his left foot on the earth, 3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried feven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the feven thunders had uttered their voices. I was about to write : and I heard a voice from heaven, faying unto me, Seal up those things which the feven thunders uttered, and write them

And the angel which I faw frand upon the fea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

And fware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earthand the things that therein are, and the fea, and the things which are therein, that there mould be time no longer.

But in the dayes of the voice of the feventh angel, when he hall begin to found, the mystery of God should be finifhed as he hath declared to his fervants the prophets.

And the voice which I heard from heaven, spake unto me again, and faid, Go and take the little book which is open, in the hand of the angel, which standeth upon the fearand upon the earth.

And I went unto the angel and faid unto him Give me the little book, And he faid unto me, Take it and eat it up and it half make thy belly bitter, but it hall be

10 And I took the little book out of the angels hand, and are it up, and it was it y mouth fweet as honey : and affoon as I had earen it my belly was bitter.

and the earth opened her mouth, and fuallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her feed, which keep the com-mandments of God, and have the tellimony of Jefus Chrift.

A beast with seven heads ariseth out of the feat to whom the dragon givest his power. 11 Another beaft cometh out of the earth.

Nd I flood upon the fand of the A fea and faw a beaft rife up out of the fea, having feven heads, and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion : and the dragon gave him his power, and his feat, and great authority

And I faw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed; and all the world

And they worthipped the dragon which gave power unto the beaft, and they work ipped the beaft, faying, Who is like unto the beaft? who is able to make war with him?

And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things, and blafphemies, and power was given unto him to continue fourty and two moneths. 6 And he opened his mouth in blahemy against God, to blaspheme his Name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make war with the faints, and to overcome them : and power was given him over all kinreds and tongues and nations.

And all that dwell upon the earth hall worthip him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lambo flain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an earslet him hear : 10 He that leadeth into captivity hall go into captivity : he that killeth with the fword, must be killed with the fword. Here is the patience, and the faith of the 11 And I beheld another beaft coming up out of the earth and he had two horns like a lamb and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exercifeth all the power of the first beaft before him, and causeth the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worthip the firft beaft, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doth great wonders, fo that he makerh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the fight of men-

14 And deceiverh them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those mira-tles, which he had power to do in the fight of the beatt, saying to them that dwell on the earth-that they fould make an image to the beaft , which had the wound by a fword and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto

16 And the earth helped the woman, the image of the beaft, that the image of the beaft fhould both speak and cause that as many as would not worthip the image of the beaft should be killed.

16 And he caufeth all, both finall and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hands or in their foreheads :

17 And that no man might buy or fells fave he that had the mark or the name of the beaft-or the number of his name.

18 Here is wifdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beaft : for it is the number of a man, and his number is fix hundred threefcore and fix.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The Lamb with his company flanding on mount Sion. 6 An angel preacheth the gospel 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world.

A Nd I looked, and lo, a Lamb flood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred fourty and four thousand, having his Fathers name written in their foreheads

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, & as the voice of a great thunder : and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps : 3 And they fung as it were a new fong before the throne, and before the four beafts, and the elders, and no man could learn that fong-but the hundred and fourty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

These are they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins : these are they which follow the Lamb whitherfoever he goeth : thefe were redeemed from among men being the firafruits unto God and ro the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile : for they are without fault before the throne of God.

And I faw another angel flie in the midft of heaven , having the everlafting gofpel , to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kinred and tongue and people

7 Saying with a loud voice-Fear God. and give glory to him for the hour of his judgement is come : and worthip him that made heaven, and earth, and the feas and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angels faying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great cities because the made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her for-

9 And the third angel followed them, faying with a loud voice, If any many worthip the beaft, and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand: 10 The fame shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured our without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimftone in the prefence of the holy angels, and in the prefence of the Lamb :

the beaft and his image , and who foever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the faints: here are they that keep the command-ments of God-and the faith of Jefus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, faying unto me, Write, Bleffed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth, yea, faith the Spirit, that they may reft from their labours, and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one fat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a fharp

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that fat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sicle and reap, for the time is come for thee to reap, for the harvest of the earth is

16 And he that fat on the cloud thruft in his fiele on the earth, and the earth was reaped

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a farp ficle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire, and cried with a loud cry to him that had the tharp ficle, faying. Thrust in thy sharp ficle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth , for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his ficle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-presse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the wine-presse, even unto the horse bridles , by the fpace of a shouland and lix bundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

The fong of 1 The seven last plagues. them that overcome the beaft. 7 The Seven vials of Gids wrath.

Nd I faw another figne in heaven, great and maryellous, feven angels aving the feven last plagues-for in them is filled up the wrath of God

And I faw as it were a fea of glaffe mingled with fire and them that had gotten the victory over the beaft, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, frand on the fea of glaffe having the harps of God

3 And they fing the fong of Mofes the fervant of God, and the fong of the Lamb, faying, Great and marvellous are thy works. Lord God Almighty, just and true are thy wayes, thou king of faints.

4 Who hall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name ! for thou onely art oly : for all nations thall come and worhip before thee, for thy judgements are made manifeft.

And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the tefti-

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple having the feven plagues, clothed in pure and white linenand having their brens girded with golden girdles.

And one of the four beafts gave unto the feven angels, feven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with fmeak from the glory of God, and from his power-and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the feven plagues of the feven angels were fulfilled

C H A P. XVI.

15 Christ cometh as a thicf.

Nd I heard a great voice out of the temple, faying to the feven angels, Go your wayes, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth

2 And the first went and poured out his vial upon the earth, and there fell a noifom and grievous fore upon the men which had the mark of the beaft, and upon them which worthipped his image.

3 And the fecond angel powred out his vial upon the fea, and it became as the blood of a dead man; and every living foul died in the fea.

And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of wa-

And I heard the angel of the waters fay, Theu art righteous, O Lord, which art, and waft, and fhair be, because thou haft judged thus :

6 For they have fed the blood of faints and prophers, and thou halt given them blood to drink : for they are worthy. 7 And I heard another out of the altar fay, Even for Lord God Almighty, true, and right cous are thy judgements.

And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the fun , and power was given unto him to fcorch men with fire. 9 And men were fcorched with hear and blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. 10 And the fift angel poured out his vial upon the feat of the beaft, and his kingdom was full of darkneffe, and they gnawed their tongues for pain-11 And blafphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains, and their foren and repented not of their deeds. 12 And the fixt angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates, and the water thereof was dried up , that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. 13 And I faw three unclean fpirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon-& out of the mouth of the beaft, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 14 For they are the fpirits of devils working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world , to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty

vial into the air, and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven from the throne faying, It is done.

18 And there were voices and thunders, and lightnings : and there was a great earthquake, fuch as was not fince men were upon the earth, fo mighty an earthguake, and fo great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and great Babylon came in re-memberance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceneffe of his wrath,

20 And every ifland fled away and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent, and men blafphemed God because of the plague of the hail:for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

3, 4 A woman araied in scarlet, with a golden cup in ber hand-fitteth upon the heaft. which is Babylon,

A Nd there came one of the feven antalked with me, faying unto me, Come hithers I will shew unto thee the judgement of the great whore that fitteth upon many waters : 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the in-habiters of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the fpirit into the wildernesse: and I saw a woman fit upon a fearlet coloured beaft, full of names of blafphemy having feven heads, and cen horns.

4 And the woman was araied in purple, and fearlet colour, and decked with gold, and precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations, and Althineffe of her fornication.

And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MO-ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH And I faw the woman drunken with the blood of the faints, & with the blood of the martyrs of Jefus: and when I faw her, I wondered with great admiration, 7 And the angel faid unto me, Wherefore didft thou marvell ? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beaft that carrieth her, which hath the feven heads, and ten horns.

8 The beaft that thou faweft, was, and is not, and fhall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beaft that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the minde which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman fitterh.

10 And there are feven kings, five are fallen, and one is and the other is not yet come : and when he cometh, he muß contime a fhort space, 11 And the beaft that was, and is not, even he is the eighth-and is of the feven, and goeth into perdition.

Babylons fall.

12 And the ten horns which thou fawestare ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet : but receive power as kings one hour with the beaft. 13 These have one minder& hall give their power and ftrength unto the beaft.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them : for he is Lord of lords and King of kings and they that are with him, are called and chosen and faithfull

15 And he faith unto me, The waters which thou fawelt, where the whore fitteth-are peoples-and multitudes, and na-

16 And the ten horns which thou faweft upon the beaft thefe hall hate the whores and fhall make her deforate-& naked and thall ear her fieth, and burn her with fire. 17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beaft, untill the words of God hall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou faweds is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

Nd after these things, I saw another And after these things, I saw antener having great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a frong voice, faying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul fpirit, and a cage of every unclean and hatefull bird.

For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven-faying Come out of her, my peo-ple, that ye be not partakers of her tins and that we receive not of her plagues : For her fins have reached unto heavens and God hath remembred her iniquities 6 Reward her even as the rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works : in the cup which the hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much the hath glorified her felf, and lived deliciously, fo much torment and forrow give her: for the faith in her heart. I fit a queen, and am no wilow, and shall fee no forrow

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day death, and mourning, & famine, and the thal be utterly burnt with fire; for firong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he

8 But the fearfull, and unbelievines and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and forcerers, and idolaters,and all liars. thall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimftone : which is the fecond death.

9 And there came unto me one of the feven angels, which had the feven vials full of the feven last plagues, and raiked with me, faying-Come hither-I will frew thee the bride, the Lambs wife.

10 And he carried me away in & fpirit to a great and high mountain and flowed me that great city, the holy Jerufalems

11 Having the glory of God : and her light mas like unto a stone most precious, even like a jafper ftone, clear as cryftail :

12 And had a wall-great and high and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Marael.

13 On the east three gates on the north three gates, on the fouth three gates, and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations : and in them the names of the twelve spottles of the Lamb

ig And he that ralked with me, had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gares thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-fquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured & city with the recontwelve oufand furlongs : the length, and the

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and fourty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it ras of jasper-and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glaffe.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnified with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation is jaspers the second saphirs the third a chalcedony-the fourth an emerald, 20 The fift fardonyx-the fixth fardius, the feventh chryfolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth a topaz, the tenth a chryfoprafus, the eleventh a jacina, the twelfth n amethy &.

at And the twelve gates were twelve earls, every feverall gate was of one earl and the fireet of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glasse.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb

23 And the city had no need of the fun neither of the moon to hine in it : for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are faved hall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shau at all by day; for there shall be no might there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and our of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wife enter into it any thing that defileth-neither wh foeverworketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambs book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

I The mater of life. 2 The tree of life. 5 The light of the city of God is himself. 9 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, wor taken sway.

Not he desired.

Nd he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as cryftall, proding out of the throne of God, and of

In the midft of the fireet of it, and of either fide of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits , and yeelded her fruit every moneth : and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

And there skall be no more curfebut the throne of God, and of the Lamb hall be in it, and his fervants hall ferve him.

And they shall fee his face, and his Name shall be in their forebeads.

5 And there shall be no night thereand

they need no candle, neither light of the fun; for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithfull and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets fent his angel to hew unto his fervants the things which must thortly be done.

7 Behold I come quickly:Bleffed is he that keepeth the fayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John faw thefe things, & heard them, and when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the seet of the angel, which shewed me these things,

9 Then faith he unto me. See thou do it not : for I am thy fellow-fervant and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the fayings of this book : worthip God.

10 And he faith unto me, Seal not the fayings of the prophecy of this book:

11 He that is unjuft, let him be unjuft fill : and he which is filthy, let him be filthy fill : and he that is righteous, let him be righteous ftill : and he that is holy, let him be holy ftill.

12 And behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the begis-ning and the end, the first and the last. Bleffed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in theren the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and forceren, and whoremongers, and unarderers, and idolaters, and wholeever loveth and maketh a lie. 16 I Jefus have fent mine angel to telli-

fie unto you these things in the churches, I am the root, and the off-spring of Da-vid, and the bright, and morning star. 17 And the Spirit and the Bride fays

Come. And let him that is athirft-come. And whofoever will , let him take the

18 For I teftifie unto every man that areth the words of the prophecy of this heareth the words of the prophecy of this things, God shall adde unto him the plagues that are written in this book

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God firal take away his part out of $ book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which tellifieth thefe things faith-Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even forCome, Lord Jefus.
